NOTE.—Of these churches, some existed under Royal Charter, or otherwise, prior to the first Convention of the Diocese in 1785. This class is denoted by the letter A, placed after the date of admission into union.

A few others seem to have been admitted by the Conventions in which they respectively appeared for the first time by their delegates, although mention of the admission seems to have been omitted by the Journal. Such are designated by the letter B.

The few incorporated under the law of April 13, 1854, are marked by the letter C.

JOURNAL OF THE PROCEEDINGS OF THE CONVENTION.

NEW YORK, WEDNESDAY, }
September 28, 1892. }

THIS being the day appointed by the Constitution of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of New York for the meeting of the Annual Convention, a number of the clergy and laity assembled for Divine Service, at 10 o'clock in the morning, at the Church of the Holy Trinity, Forty-second Street, in the City of New York, the place appointed by the Bishop for the purpose.

The Preacher, the Rev. Alford A. Butler, the Rector of the Church of the Epiphany, New York, being unable to be present, the sermon prepared by him was read by the Rev. Dr. Harris.

The Holy Communion was celebrated by the Bishop, who was assisted in the service and in the administration by the Right Reverend Henry A. Neely, D.D., Bishop of Maine, the Rev. Morgan Dix, D.D., Chairman of the Standing Committee, the Rev. Henry L. Ziegenfuss, D.D., Archdeacon of Dutchess; the Rev. W. R. Thomas, D.D., Archdeacon of Orange; the Rev. F. B. Van Kleeck, D.D., Archdeacon of Westchester; the Rev. A. Mackay-Smith, D.D., Archdeacon of New York; the Rev. Geo. D. Johnson, D.D., Archdeacon of Richmond; the Rev. W. H. Vibbert, D.D., Assistant Minister of Trinity Parish; the Rev. E. A. Bradley, D.D., Assistant Minister of Trinity Parish; the Rev. E. S. Burford, Rector of the Church of the Intercession; the Rev. C. De Witt Bridgman, D.D., Rector of the Church of the Holy Trinity, Harlem; and the Rev. E. Walpole Warren, Rector of the Holy Trinity, Forty-second Street.

The Bishop took the chair, and called the Convention to order. Under the direction of the Bishop the Secretary, the Rev. Thos. R. Harris, D.D., called the roll of the clergy entitled to seats, when one hundred and twenty-six answered to their names, and took their seats.*

The Secretary then called the names of the Lay Delegates whose certificates had been received, when delegates from ninety-five parishes appeared, and took their seats.*

A constitutional quorum being present, the President declared the Convention organized for business.

On motion, the reading of the rules of order was dispensed with, and the President announced the election of Secretary and Treasurer as next in order.

The Rev. Thomas R. Harris, D.D., was nominated as Secretary by the Rev. Dr. Satterlee, and on motion of the Rev. Thos. McKee Brown, the ballot was dispensed with and Dr. Harris was elected unanimously.

On motion of the Secretary, the ballot was dispensed with, and Mr. James Pott was elected Treasurer by a unanimous vote.

The Chair announced the following Standing Committees :

For Standing Committee.

The Rev. Dr. Van De Water presented the following report :

Report

OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE INCORPORATION AND ADMISSION OF PARISHES.

The Committee on the Incorporation and Admission of Parishes respectfully report that they have received through the Secretary of the Convention applications for admission to the Convention from the Church of the Ascension, Mount Vernon, New York ; St. John's Church, Larchmont, New York ; St. John's Church, Ellenville, New York ; and Emmanuel Church of Harlem, in the City and County of New York.

The applications of the aforesaid Churches were accompanied by the papers required by the Canon, showing that the Church of the Ascension, Mount Vernon, New York, was duly incorporated on the 26th day of May, 1890, and the Articles of Incorporation were duly filed and recorded in the County of Westchester, on the 26th day of June, 1890 ; and that St. John's Church, Larchmont, New York, was duly incorporated on the 31st day of October, 1891, and that the Articles of such Incorporation were duly filed and recorded in the County of Westchester on the 5th day of November, 1891 ; and that St. John's Church, Ellenville, New York, was duly incorporated on the 30th day of June, 1884, and that the Certificate of Incorporation was filed and recorded in the County of Ulster, on the 9th day of July, 1885 ; and that Emmanuel

Church of Harlem, in the City and County of New York, was duly incorporated August 24, 1892, and that the Certificate of Incorporation was duly filed and recorded in the City and County of New York, on the 25th day of August, 1892.

Your Committee therefore recommend that the Church of the Ascension, Mount Vernon, New York, and St. John's Church, Larchmont, New York, and St. John's Church, Ellenville, New York, be admitted into union with the Convention.

The papers of Emmanuel Church, Harlem, were not filed forty days before the meeting of the Convention, as required by the Canon, but in all other respects are correct and approved by the Bishop. Your Committee, therefore, would ask that the Convention overlook this single omission, and that Emmanuel Church, Harlem, in the City and County of New York, be admitted into union with this body.

Your Committee have discovered the necessity of furnishing blanks to Churches desiring to become incorporated, and to be admitted into union with the Convention, in order that every requirement of the Canon can be fully met, and they would earnestly recommend that in the future the provision of Canon IV. be rigidly observed.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

GEO. R. VAN DE WATER,	} Committee.
WM. G. HAMILTON,
JACOB WENDELL,

NEW YORK, September 19, 1892.

On motion of the Rev. Dr. Van De Water, the Church of the Ascension, Mount Vernon; St. John's Church, Larchmont; St. John's Memorial Church, Ellenville; and Emmanuel Church, Harlem, New York, were admitted into union with the Convention in accordance with the recommendation of the Committee.

On motion, the Convention adjourned till two o'clock, for recess.

On the reassembling of the Convention, the Secretary presented the following memorial:

SYRACUSE, May 9, 1892.

TO REV. THOMAS R. HARRIS, D.D., SECRETARY DIOCESE OF NEW YORK.

Dear Sir:—At a meeting of the General Association of Congregational Ministers and Churches of New York, held at Brooklyn, May 19, 1891, the undersigned were appointed a committee to present to other religious bodies within the State, for their consideration, the following resolutions offered by the Central Association:

Whereas, The laws of 1860, Chap. 360, An Act Relating to Wills, Sec. 1, provides that "No person having a husband, wife, child, or parent, shall by his or her last will and testament devise or bequeathe to any benevolent, charitable, literary, scientific, religious or missionary society, association or corporation, in trust or otherwise, more than one-half of his or her estate after the payment of his or her debts, and such devise or bequeath shall be void to the extent of one-half and no more ;" and,

Whereas, The laws of 1848, Chap. 319, An Act for the Incorporation of Benevolent, Charitable, Scientific and Missionary Societies, Sec. 6, of said Act, provides " That no devise or bequeath to any corporation founded under said act shall be valid in any will which shall not have been made and executed at least two months before the death of the testator ;" and,

Whereas, We believe the foregoing restrictions and limitations are arbitrary, and abridge the rights of individuals, and often defeat plans for benevolence, and hinder the work of the benevolent and missionary societies ; and,

Whereas, We believe the objects sought by such restrictions and limitations are already fully secured by ample provision in our statutes, and the obstacles hereby complained of are exceptional in their character, not applying to forms of bequest other than educational and benevolent ; therefore it is

Resolved, By the Central Association of Congregational Ministers and Churches of New York, that said restrictions and limitations ought to be repealed by the Legislature of this State.

Resolved, That the State Association of our Ministers and Churches, which meets at Brooklyn, the 19th instant, be requested to take action for conferring with religious bodies representing other denominations in order to secure a united effort to procure the repeal of these obnoxious laws.

We beg leave to present these resolutions to you, which were adopted by our State Association, and to ask you to present them to the Diocese of New York, of which you are clerk, at their next annual meeting, with a view to their appointing one or more brethren to act upon a Committee of Conference in regard to presenting some law to the Legislature of New York in due time, should the object thus sought seem desirable upon careful consideration.

Whenever any action shall be taken by your body, and any person appointed to act on a Conference Committee, will you please notify us so that we may call a meeting ?

With fraternal sentiments, we remain, yours faithfully,

EDWARD N. PACKARD,	} Committee.
AUGUSTUS F. BEARD,
WM. A. ROBINSON,

By E. N. PACKARD, Syracuse, Chairman.

On motion of the Secretary, this memorial was referred to a committee of three to be appointed by the Chair.

The Chair appointed as such committee, the Rev. H. L. Ziegenfuss, D.D., the Rev. Thomas Burgess, and Mr. A. W. Reynolds.

The Secretary presented and read the following report :

On motion of the Secretary, Mr. Cornelius Vanderbilt and Mr. Henry Lewis Morris were reëlected as Trustees of the Estate and Property of Convention, to serve until October, 1896.

The Secretary presented and read the following report :

Report

OF THE PROTESTANT EPISCOPAL CHURCH MISSIONARY SOCIETY FOR SEAMEN IN THE CITY AND PORT OF NEW YORK.

The Protestant Episcopal Church Missionary Society for Seamen in the City and Port of New York presents its Forty-eighth Annual Report.

For the past two or three years the work among the sailors has steadily extended. In calling attention to the figures recording the growing usefulness of the reading-rooms, and increased attendance at services, the Board looks for further gains during the coming year. The time is ripe for the work. The sailors like the quarters we provide for them, and respond to our methods of instruction and entertainment by increasing attendance at our meetings, and when they sail away, send back new friends whom they have told about us.

The Society sustains three mission stations along the river front, each having its active, faithful missionary, assisted by colporteurs and sextons in visiting vessels and bringing seamen to the services and reading-rooms. The effort to influence the seamen is not confined to the Sunday services, but extends through the week, a variety of agencies being employed to this end. At each of the stations is a reading-room, open daily and well supplied with books, papers, and writing materials free of charge for the use of seamen. Here men who would otherwise be exposed to temptation in various shapes find safe company and innocent recreation. Here, too, are inducements to temperance in the influence of sober men. There were 56,340 visits made to these reading-rooms during the year. Each station has its characteristic set of seamen. The sailing craft frequent the East River. No. 34 Pike Street, with the Floating Bethel, attracts the men who man them. The canal boatmen and their families are the peculiar charge of the Coenties Slip station, and the great steamship lines contribute their quota to the Houston Street mission. An important feature of the Society's work is the distribution of good literature to seamen, including Bibles and Prayer Books in various languages.

A summary of the year's work is as follows :

Number of services held.....	541
Aggregate attendance.....	27,625
Visitors to reading-rooms.....	56,340
Visits by missionaries and colporteurs to vessels and sailors' boarding-houses.....	15,755
Baptisms.....	28
Marriages.....	24
Burials.....	27
Seamen and boatmen supplied with books.....	6,021

Books distributed in several languages :

Bibles.....	318
Testaments.....	854
Prayer Books.....	459
Miscellaneous.....	5,512
Tracts and papers.....	73,038

The Report of the Treasurer shows the following :

Receipts.

Balance on hand, Easter, 1891.....	$503 67

The Clergy of the Church are earnestly asked to visit the stations of the Society and inform themselves as to this work among the Seamen, and to present its claims for support to their congregations.

Attention is called to the Canon providing for collections in behalf of this Society.

HENRY S. OAKLY.

The Secretary presented and read the following report :

Report

OF ST. STEPHEN'S COLLEGE.

The Warden of St. Stephen's College, in behalf of the Trustees, begs to report to the Convention of the Diocese of New York that the College is in its usual prosperous condition. The present academic year has just opened with 75 students.

At the last commencement 10 graduated bachelors of arts, and 6 received the certificate of having completed the course of studies named by the Canons of the Church. There are now of the men educated at St. Stephen's 240 in Holy Orders. Many of them are occupying positions of importance and honor, and all of them working with faith and zeal for the Master.

The work of the College has been enlarged and prosecuted with greater success from the increased means which have been placed in our hands.

During the past year John C. Robertson, a graduate of the Johns Hopkins University, has entered on the duties of the Professor of Greek; a new building of dormitories has been occupied, and we are now engaged in the erection of a fire-proof library building. All which we have been able to do through the liberality of the Rev. Charles F. Hoffman, D.D.

The number of applications continues to be greater than we can receive and provide for. All those who are with us are communicants of the Church, and all, with the exception of four, intend to present themselves to become Candidates for Holy Orders.

All which is respectfully submitted.

R. B. FAIRBAIRN,
Warden, etc.

Prior to 1885 the rules of the Convention required of all Clergymen applying for aid from the Fund for Aged and Infirm Clergymen, a canonical connection with the Diocese of three years prior to the application in cases of Clergymen admitted to Deacon's orders in this Diocese, and of six years in other cases.

The Convention of 1885 relaxed these rules so as to make the periods two and four years respectively, and provided that the relaxation should cease within seven years, unless continued by further action of the Convention.

The Trustees have found that during the past seven years no harm has resulted from the relaxation of the rules in this respect, and they therefore recommend that the relaxation be made permanent.

They therefore recommend the adoption of the following additional rule, which shall replace the rule adopted by the Convention of 1843.

RULE.—Aid from the Fund for Aged and Infirm Clergymen may be extended to Clergymen who at the time of applying for aid are canonically connected with the Diocese, and who also fulfil one of the following requirements :

1. Clergymen who at the time of receiving Deacon's orders were canonically connected with this Diocese as Candidates for Orders, and who have spent at least two successive years immediately prior to the time of applying for aid, in parochial or necessary duty within the Diocese, or in the instruction of youth in some seminary therein, approved by the Bishop, and in which religious instruction is imparted to all the pupils on the principles exclusively of this Church, and who have also spent, except for reasons approved by the Bishop, the rest of the period of their ministry in discharge of the duties of one or more of the aforesaid functions. ,

2. Clergymen becoming connected with this Diocese after their admission to Deacon's orders, and who shall have been connected with it for at least four successive years immediately prior to the time of applying for aid, and shall be otherwise qualified as above.

The Trustees respectfully call the attention of the Convention to the large number of beneficiaries of the Widows' and Orphans' Fund, and of the Life Insurance Fund. The claims upon the former of these Funds are so urgent as to make it impossible to divert any of the Thanksgiving offerings from this Fund.

In fact, the offerings should be largely increased. The only sources of increase for the Life Insurance Fund are from donations and legacies, and the Trustees feel that the Clergy should do all in their power to secure these for the Fund. Failing these, the Trustees will soon be obliged to reduce the proportion of the premiums paid to the present beneficiaries, in order to enable future applicants to share in the benefits of the Fund.

Since the past Convention the Trustees have altered one of the rules for the management of the Life Insurance Fund so that it shall read as given below, and they respectfully ask the ratification of their action by the Convention.

RULE 4.—No assistance shall be rendered except to Clergymen taking out policies which are payable at their deaths, and the premiums on which are payable either during life or during a period of not less than twenty years from the date of the policy.

Respectfully submitted,

The following communication bearing on the same subject was also read :

NEW YORK, September 27, 1892.

RT. REV. HENRY C. POTTER, D.D.

Rt. Rev. and Dear Sir:—I enclose the report of the Trustees of the Aged and Infirm Clergy Fund. May I ask you to sign the report where I have put your initials, and hand it to the Secretary of the Convention ?

I am also asked to call your attention to the figures disclosed by the report. As to the Widows' and Orphans' Fund, we have received during the past year from contributions on Thanksgiving Day, and from donations, $5,921.73, and we have paid out $7,047.50. These payments will be increased during the coming year, owing to the fact that we have granted allowances from this Fund to commence on October 1st, and also because many of the present beneficiaries have not received their allowance for a full year. Unless the contributions are increased, the present surplus in the Treasurer's hands will soon be entirely wiped out.

As to the Life Insurance Fund, the number of beneficiaries of the Fund has more than doubled during the past year. No money is received for this Fund except one-third of undesignated donations and legacies. We have received from this source during the past year, added to interest on funds in our hands, only the sum of $146.04, and we have paid for premiums $1,613.58. With the beneficiaries lately added to the Fund, the payments during the coming year will amount to about $2,161.32. It is very evident that unless the Clergy of the Diocese take some steps to secure donations or legacies to the Life Insurance Fund, it will soon be impossible for the Trustees to meet their obligations to the Clergymen already on the list, and we shall not be able hereafter to assist Clergymen in the same proportion. I am instructed to say this to you in the hope that you will be able, either at the Convention, or at whatever other time seems best to you, to call the special attention of the Clergy to these figures.

Yours truly,

BACHE McE. WHITLOCK,
Secretary.

On motion, the first additional rule recommended by the Trustees was adopted.

On motion, the action of the Trustees in altering one of the rules for the management of the Life Insurance Fund was ratified, and the rule, as altered, was adopted in accordance with their recommendation.

On motion of the Secretary, the ballot was dispensed with, and the Trustees of the Fund for Aged and Infirm Clergy were reelected for the ensuing year.

The Rev. Charles F. Canedy offered the following resolution, which was adopted :

Resolved, That the President be requested to appoint a committee of three to propose a method by which the Diocese may secure annuities for those of the Clergy who, after ten years of active duty within the Diocese, have reached the age of sixty years. These annuities to be given in recognition of service rendered to the Diocese and the Church.

The Chair appointed as such committee the Rev. Charles F. Canedy, the Rev. E. Walpole Warren, and Mr. Anson Phelps Stokes.

The Rev. Dr. Rainsford presented and read the following report :

Report

OF THE COMMITTEE ON NOMINATIONS AND ELECTIONS.

The Committee appointed at the last meeting of the Convention to report on the best manner of conducting the elections in the Convention, including nominations of candidates for office, respectfully report :

The Canons of this Diocese provide for the election by ballot of the following officers and committees :

1. A Secretary.
2. A Treasurer.
3. Four Clerical and four Lay Deputies to the General Convention.
Four Clerical and four Lay Provisional Deputies.
4. The Standing Committee of the Diocese.
5. Five Clergymen and five Laymen as members of the Missionary Committee.
6. Eight Clergymen and eight Laymen as Deputies to the Federate Council.

Of these officers, it is desirable that the Secretary and Treasurer be elected at the opening of Convention, and it has been the custom to dispense with the ballot, and to nominate and elect them viva voce.

The members of the Missionary Committee must be elected by the Convention sitting as the Board of Missions. Your Committee have, therefore, confined their attention to the question of nominating and electing the Standing Committee, the Deputies and Provisional Deputies to General Convention, and the Members of the Federate Council, and they recommend the adoption of the following resolutions :

The mode of conducting the nominations and elections of the Standing Committee, the Deputies and Provisional Deputies to the General Convention, and the Members of the Federate Council shall be as follows :

Any member of the Convention may send to the Secretary in writing, on or before the first day of the meeting thereof, nominations for the Standing Committee, for Clerical and Lay Deputies and Provisional Deputies to the General Convention, and for members of the Federate Council. All names so sent in shall be reported to the Convention by the Secretary in print, at the beginning of the second day's session, in the form of a ballot as herewith presented, the names to be arranged in alphabetical order, and after each list of nominations as many blank spaces shall be left as there are vacancies to be filled. In voting, only these ballots shall be used.

If the election is not completed on the first ballot, not more than two candidates for each vacancy remaining shall be eligible on any subsequent ballot, the two eligible candidates being those of the same order who received the highest number of votes, after those elected on the ballot immediately preceding.

Resolved, That the Secretary be instructed to provide a board to be hung up in a conspicuous place in the Convention, on which shall be posted the nominations, and also the names of the present members of the Standing Committee, Deputies and Provisional Deputies to General Convention and the Federate Council, and that these names shall also be printed on the back of each of the ballots provided by the Secretary.

Resolved, That Canon IX. be amended, by adding to it a clause prescribing the above method of balloting, and in the following words, to wit: "The mode of conducting, etc., etc."

W. S. RAINSFORD, Chairman.

W. H. BENJAMIN.

ELIHU CHAUNCEY.

NEW YORK, September, 1892.

On motion of the Rev. Dr. Rainsford, the foregoing report was referred to the Committee on Canons.

On the motion of the Rev. W. S. Coffey, the following proposed amendment to the Canons was referred to the Committee on Canons :

CANON VII.

SEC. 5. Upon the dissolution of a Parish, the Register provided by this Canon shall immediately become the property of the Diocese, and the Bishop is hereby authorized to cause it to be delivered to him, to be under his care for its legitimate purposes.

Mr. James Pott presented and read the following report :

The Archdeacon of New York, the Rev. Alexander Mackay-Smith, D.D., presented and read the following report :

Report

OF THE NEW YORK PROTESTANT EPISCOPAL CITY MISSION SOCIETY.

The Executive Committee of the New York Protestant Episcopal City Mission Society, in presenting their Sixty-first Annual Report to the Diocese of New York, feel that during the past year the encouragement received from the Churches within the Archdeaconry, as well as from those to whom they have ministered, should be a stimulus for greater labor and zeal.

During the past year the usual work at the public institutions has been continued, our missionaries holding public services on Sundays and week days, besides attending daily at hospitals and prisons, by the bedsides and at the door of the prison cell. Their visits have been supplemented by those of a lady who, with kindly sympathy in the hospital and prison, has been enabled to help women and girls in a way that no man could. Her work is "woman's work amongst women." So well known is the work she is doing, that judges are ready to listen to what she says, the District Attorney to accept the testimony she gathers as conclusive as to the previous character of the accused, the doctors to ask her help in quieting the insane. The dreadful stories of life that develop daily in these hospitals and prisons require the skill and sympathy of an intelligent and self-sacrificing woman.

In cases of attempted suicides, she has reclaimed many, and we could point to-day to examples of her faithful love where she followed these women until she settled them where they could earn their living with honest industry. Full reports of her work will be found in the Mission News of the Archdeaconry, the reading of which has opened the hearts of many to respond to the appeal for money to help these unfortunates start afresh.

It is no use to save these people if we do not try and hold them up afterward, and by judicious aid give them a fair start again. We cannot and must not let them perish without trying to save them.

Mission Chapels.—St. Ambrose's, at the corner of Thompson and Prince Streets, is in a neighborhood where it almost appears hopeless to struggle, and yet we are doing a good work there. Through the benevolence of a large-hearted lady, we now have an assistant, a lay reader, and a lady visitor who spends her time with the people. Once a week during the summer she has carried a company to the seashore; once a week she has met the girls at the guild rooms, 221 Varick Street. The Sunday-school meets every Sunday afternoon, except two months in the summer, and this fall we trust (D.V.) to have a French service at 5 o'clock P.M. There is a large French population in that neighborhood, and the Rev. Mr. Wittmeyer, of the Church du St. Esprit, is in hearty sympathy with this project.

The Chapel of the Messiah, begun on the 1st of May, 1891, in a store at the corner of Ninety-fourth Street and Second Avenue, proved so successful that lots have been bought on Ninety-fifth Street, near Third Avenue, and the work of erecting a Chapel in memorial of the late Thomas B. Coddington, by his daughters, has been started. It will cost about $40,000, and have all modern appliances for Mission work. The Chapel will be completed in the spring of 1893.

At St. Barnabas' House the work of providing shelter and refuge for women and children has progressed, and this cheerful house needs but a visit to convince you all of its good work. Daily prayer is said in the Chapel, with the addition of sermons on Sundays and Wednesdays, and celebration of Holy Communion at least once a month and on the principal holy days. The House now occupies 304 and 306 Mulberry Street, and the store floor of 309 Mott Street.

At 307 Mott Street, a Rescue Mission has been opened since the 3d of January, 1892. A service has been held nightly, at which mission hymns are sung, and, after a few collects and a word of exhortation by the clergyman in charge, the meeting is opened, and the men are encouraged to speak. Their tales are generally of the evils of drink, which in many cases seems to be the foundation of all other sins. Many have been encouraged to sign the pledge; some have kept it for awhile; some have seemed ardent and zealous to persuade others, alas! to fall themselves when tempted. The work on the whole is encouraging, and were there but a single soul saved, would well repay the workers. This is but a drag-net, thrown into this sea of misery and vice that lies below Fourteenth Street. The men are impressed with the fact that this is not a Church, and they are encouraged as soon as consistent to connect themselves with some Church and live as Christians in the fellowship of Christ's people.

During the past year a very fine stereopticon was presented by the ladies of the City Committee of Grace Church to the City Mission Society, and it has been used already at several entertainments at the Mission Chapels, and will be so used during the coming winter, and for illustrating Bible lessons.

The following is a summary of the work of "The New York Protestant Episcopal City Mission Society," including the Mission Chapels of the Messiah, St. Barnabas', St. Ambrose's, and Christ the Consoler, and the Chapel of the Good Shepherd, on Blackwell's Island: The Rev. Archdeacon Alexander Mackay-Smith, D.D., Superintendent of Mission Work ; Rev. Brockholst Morgan, Superintendent ad interim ; Rev. Geo. Downing Sparks and Mr. Jarvis Worden, Mission Priest and lay reader at Chapel of the Messiah, Second Avenue and Ninety-fourth Street ; Rev. Brockholst Morgan, Missionary at St. Barnabas' ; Rev. Jocelyn Johnstone and Sven Gertzson, Missionary and lay reader at St. Ambrose's ; Rev. Henry St. George Young, and Rev. Francis Mansfield, Missionaries in charge of the Chapel of Christ the Consoler, Bellevue, and of the Rescue Mission at 307 Mott Street ; Rev. Wm. G. French, and Rev. C. C. Proffitt, Missionaries in charge of Chapel of the Good Shepherd, the New York City Lunatic Asylum and Workhouse, on Blackwell's Island ; Rev. J. H. L. Zillmann, Missionary in charge of the Tombs' services ; Rev. Bradin Hamilton, Missionary in charge of the services at Charity Hospital, and acting chaplain at the Penitentiary ; Rev. C. W. de Lyon Nichols, Missionary in charge of the services at the Harlem Reception Hospital, Convalescent Home, and the Homœopathic Hospital on Ward's Island ; Rev. C. A. Wenman, Missionary and acting chaplain at the institutions on Randall's and Hart's Islands, and at the New York City Asylum for the Insane. Messrs. Thomas Topping, Fred. A. McMillen, and C. E. Wilson, Lay Missionaries, assist in maintaining visits and services in the city prisons, infant asylums, Colored Home, etc.

A lady devotes her time to the cases of friendless women and girls in the hospitals, prisons, and courts.

Rt. Rev. H. C. Potter, D.D., LL.D., is President ; Chas. P. Bull, Secretary ; John H. Boynton, Treasurer and General Agent.

The Superintendent of Mission Work ad interim has preached in behalf of the work of the Society before 52 churches.

The Rev. D. H. Greer, D.D., offered the following resolution, which was adopted unanimously :

Resolved, In view of the growing work of the City Mission Society, and of the increased responsibility laid upon it for supporting new Missions and Chapels lately opened by the liberality of Church members in New York, we hereby express our deep sense of the importance of its labors, and urge every Parish in the city to support it by a yearly collection, and by a hearty interest in furthering every feature of the work.

The Secretary announced that he had appointed the Rev. George F. Nelson, of Grace Church, New York, and the Rev. R. S. Mansfield, Rector of Christ Church, Suffern, Assistant Secretaries of Convention.

The Rev. Dr. Oliver presented and read the following report :

Report

OF THE SOCIETY FOR PROMOTING RELIGION AND LEARNING IN THE STATE OF NEW YORK.

The Superintendent of the Society for Promoting Religion and Learning in the State of New York, as the Canonical agent of the Diocese for distributing all funds for Theological Education, would most respectfully report that during the past Conventional year the following sums have been contributed for the purposes of the Society within the Diocese of New York :

	20. St. Stephen's College Chapel.....	10 00
Total.....		$319 71

This sum may be increased during the present session of the Convention. It has been carefully expended in aid of Candidates for the Sacred Ministry who are pursuing their studies in incorporated institutions in the State of New York, and who belong to this Diocese.

A resolution was passed at the last session of this Convention, requesting the Society "to append to its Annual Report of receipts and expenditures of moneys received from the Parishes of the Diocese, a statement of its invested funds, the annual income therefrom, and the objects to which this income is devoted." The Society did not receive official notice of this resolution until its last meeting, when it was too late to give it the careful consideration which it required. It was referred at once, however, to a special committee, who have not yet made their report.

All which is respectfully submitted.

ANDREW OLIVER,
Superintendent.

NEW YORK, September, 1892.

The Rev. Dr. Donald offered the following resolution, which was adopted :

Resolved, That the Convention respectfully petitions the Society for the Promotion of Religion and Learning to append to its next Annual Report of receipts and expenditures of moneys received from the Parishes of the Diocese a statement of its invested funds, the annual income therefrom, and the objects to which this income is devoted.

Mr. Delano C. Calvin gave notice of his intention to offer the following resolution to-morrow :

Resolved, That the second rule of order be amended by adding to the first paragraph thereof the words, " Except so far as the same shall have been disposed of on the first day."

On motion of the Rev. Dr. Gallaudet, the Convention adjourned till 10 o'clock to-morrow morning.

SECOND DAY.

THURSDAY, September 29, 1892.

The Convention met pursuant to adjournment.

Morning Prayer was said, and the Holy Communion was celebrated by the Bishop of the Diocese, assisted by the Rev. E. Walpole Warren, the Rev. Dr. Van De Water, the Rev. Lea Luquer, and the Rev. Dr. Harris.

The Bishop having taken the chair, the Minutes of the First Day were read and approved.

On motion of the Rev. C. F. Canedy, the Right Reverend the Bishop of Nassau, the Right Reverend the Bishop of Colorado, and Canon Churton, of King's College, Cambridge, were invited to take seats beside the Bishop.

On motion of the Rev. Dr. Harris, the calling of the names of members not present on the first day was dispensed with, and such members as had appeared at the Convention were requested to send their cards to the Secretary's desk.

The Rev. Dr. Harris presented the following report :

Report

OF THE SECRETARY OF THE CONVENTION.

The Secretary of the Convention respectfully reports that he has complied with the instructions of the Convention as to the printing and distribution of the Bishop's Charge, the Journal of Convention, and the Report of the Committee on the Society for the Promotion of Religion and Learning.

In conjunction with Mr. James Grant Wilson, he has given orders for the binding of the remaining copies of the Centennial History of the Diocese, and for its distribution among the Clergy and Laity of the Diocese.

He has also superintended the assignment by lot of seats to the various parishes represented in Convention. The Rev. Dr. Kimber, of Trinity Parish ; the Rev. Mr. Bottome, of Grace Church ; Mr. James Pott, of St. Thomas', and Mr. A. R. Searles, of St. Paul's, kindly consented to act as the Committee for this work.

Besides the labor of editing and correcting the Journal and Parish Reports, the compilation of the Triennial statistics for the General Convention, and the recording the certificates of Clergymen admitted into the Diocese, appointed to cures, or transferred to other Dioceses, the detail work of the office has called for the writing of about two hundred letters and the issuing of over 1,500 circulars and sets of papers.

Learning that the Society for the Promotion of Religion and Learning desired formal official notice of the action of this Convention with reference to that Society, the Secretary transmitted such notice to the Superintendent of the Society five months ago, said notice being mailed April 30, 1892.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

THOS. R. HARRIS,
Secretary.

The Right Reverend the Bishop of the Diocese then delivered his Annual Address. [See Appendix A.]

The Rev. Dr. Seabury presented the following report :

Report

OF THE TRUSTEES OF THE PAROCHIAL FUND.

The Trustees of the Parochial Fund of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of New York respectfully report that during the past year the income of the Fund and the appropriations from it have been about the same as last reported, and that the principal of the Fund continues to be securely invested, as will appear from the report of the Treasurer herewith submitted; and that they have distributed, in accordance with the directions of their trust, to Clergymen connected with the Diocese, and receiving incomes insufficient for their support, allowances amounting in the whole to about $1,800.

The Trustees feel that they would be neglecting a duty devolved upon them by a long course of most agreeable and useful associations, if they failed to note in this place the loss which they have sustained during the past year in the decease of the venerable Carlisle Norwood, and in the resignation of the Honorable John Jay.

Mr. Norwood's connection with the Board for many years was the source of great advantage to the administration of its trust, and of constant satisfaction to his associates. His punctual attendance to duty and his habitual kindness and courtesy were widely known, and make his loss one which this Board deplores in common with the guardians of many other good works of the Church.

The resignation of Mr. Jay was accepted with great unwillingness, and only in the persuasion that such acceptance was a sacrifice due to his long and faithful service, and to his earnest desire to be relieved from duties which, owing to the continuance of ill health, he felt himself unable to discharge to his own satisfaction. It would be both superfluous and unbecoming for the Trustees to give expression to their appreciation of those qualities in Mr. Jay which make their consciousness of the loss of his counsel and companionship so profound as it is. But it cannot be out of place to commemorate the fact that it is mainly to Mr. Jay that the Church owes the foundation and organization of the Parochial Fund and a very large proportion of such good as it has been able to accomplish; nor to express the feeling that the usefulness which in time to come they anticipate for this Fund will constitute a happy and lasting memorial of one who, awarding all due respect to others, is eminently entitled to be regarded as its founder.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

GEORGE R. SCHIEFFELIN,

President.

On motion of the Rev. Alexander Mackay-Smith, D.D., the Secretary was authorized to print and distribute 1,500 copies of the sermon of the Rev. Alford A. Butler.

On motion of the Rev. Dr. Seabury, the Secretary of Convention was instructed to cast a ballot for elections to fill vacancies occurring in the Board of Trustees of the Parochial Fund as follows: Mr. George Shea, for the term expiring October, 1893, to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Mr. John Jay; Mr. Henry Dudley, for the term expiring October, 1894, to fill the vacancy caused by the decease of Mr. Carlisle Norwood; Mr. Charles G. Landon and Mr. George R. Schieffelin, for the term ending October, 1895.

The Rev. Dr. Seabury presented the following report from the Standing Committee of the Diocese:

Report

OF THE STANDING COMMITTEE.

The Standing Committee of the Diocese respectfully report that it was referred to them, by resolution adopted at the last session of this Convention, to take action as to the wisdom of petitioning the Legislature of the State so to amend the laws of the State as to require all persons seeking marriage to obtain from a Civil Court a license; that they have considered the subject so referred to them, and are of opinion that it would be inexpedient that any application should be made to the State Legislature in regard to the matter by the Diocese of New York, unless with the coöperation of the other Dioceses within the State, and recommend that no action be taken upon the subject at present.

MORGAN DIX,

President.

WM. J. SEABURY,

Secretary.

Dated, NEW YORK, September 28, 1892.

The Rev. Dr. Huntington, in behalf of the Rev. Dr. Donald, offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Standing Committee of the Diocese be requested to enter into correspondence with the several Dioceses of the State of New York, as to the wisdom of petitioning the Legislature of the State so to amend the present marriage laws of the State as to require all persons seeking to be united in marriage to obtain from a Civil Court a license, without which it shall not be lawful for any clergyman to perform the Marriage Service, and to report to the next Convention.

The Rev. Dr. Seabury moved as a substitute, that the whole matter be referred to the Deputies of the Federate Council for action.

Dr. Huntington accepted the substitute, and the resolution was adopted.

The Rev. Dr. Seabury presented the following report :

Report

OF THE COMMITTEE ON CANONS.

The Committee on Canons respectfully report that the amendment to [III.] of Sec. 7 of Canon II., proposed to the last Convention, and referred back to this Committee for report in the present year, appears to involve the withdrawal from the congregation of a Church incorporated under the Free Church Act of the power given, by apparent implication, in the Canon as it now stands, to elect Deputies for the Diocesan Convention, and to lodge that power in the Trustees, who constitute the corporate body under that act. With regard to this question, the Committee are divided, and therefore cannot recommend the adoption of the proposed amendment. They have, however, after consideration, decided to put the proposed amendment in what seems to them a better form, and more suitable for adoption as a substitute for said Subsection III., in case the Convention should be of opinion that the present Canon requires amendment in that particular, and with this view report the following :

CANON II., SEC. 7 (III.).

Lay Delegates from Churches organized under the Free Church Act, and having a Board of Trustees, shall be appointed by such Board at a regular meeting, held according to law. The evidence of such appointment shall be a certificate signed by the Minister of the Church, and by the Clerk of the Board of Trustees, which shall certify that the person has been duly chosen, that he is a lay member of the Church or Congregation, and has been such member for at least twelve months, and that the election was held in accordance with all the requirements of the Canons.

¶ The Committee further report that the proposed addition to Canon IX., concerning Elections, which has been referred to them, has been revised, and is now proposed for the consideration of the Convention in the following form :

Amend Canon IX. by adding the following :

The mode of conducting the Nominations and Elections of the Standing Committee, the Deputies and Provisional Deputies to the General Convention, and the Members of the Federal Council shall be as follows :

Any member of the Convention may send to the Secretary in writing, on or before the first day of the meeting thereof, nominations for the Standing Committee, for Clerical and Lay Deputies and Provisional Deputies to the General Convention, and for Members of the Federate Council. All names so sent in shall be reported to the Convention by the Secretary at the beginning of the second day's session in the form of a ballot on which the names shall be arranged in alphabetical order. After each list of nominations, as many blank spaces shall be left as there are vacancies to be filled. These blanks may be filled by any voter. The voter shall mark an x at the right of the names of those for whom he votes. On the first ballot, these ballots only shall be used. No ballots shall be counted on which more names are marked than there are vacancies to be filled.

If the election is not completed on the first ballot, not more than two candidates for each vacancy remaining shall be eligible on any subsequent ballot. The eligible candidates shall be those of the same order who received the highest number of votes, after those elected on the ballot immediately preceding.

The Secretary shall provide a board, to be hung up in a conspicuous place in the Convention, on which shall be posted the nominations, and also the names of the present members of the Standing Committee, Deputies and Provisional Deputies to General Convention and the Federate Council, and these names shall be printed on the back of each ballot provided by the Secretary.

The Committee farther report with regard to the amendment proposed to Canon VII., providing that the Register of a defunct Parish should become the property of the Diocese and be placed in charge of the Bishop of the Diocese, that the disposal of such Registers is already provided for by the Statutes of the State, which make the Trustees of the Estate and Property of the Diocese the custodians of the property of defunct Parishes, and, therefore, the proposed amendment to Canon VII. seems improper in its present form.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

WM. J. SEABURY,
Chairman.

On motion of Mr. S. P. Nash, the proposed amendments to the Canons were made the order of the day immediately after recess.

Mr. Geo. Macculloch Miller presented the following report :

JNO. McL. NASH,
Treasurer.

The resolution appended to the report was unanimously adopted.

The Rev. Mr. Carver offered the following resolution, which was adopted :

Resolved, That so much of the Bishop's Address as has reference to the Cathedral of St. John the Divine, be referred to a committee of three Clergymen and three laymen, to be appointed by the Chair.

The Chair appointed the following as the Committee :

The Rev. H. Y. Satterlee, D.D.	Mr. Herman C. Von Post.
The Rev. W. S. Rainsford, D.D.	Mr. Theodore K. Gibbs.
The Rev. W. H. Vibbert, D.D.	Mr. Joseph W. Harper.

The Rev. Dr. Mulchahey presented the following report :

Report

OF THE STANDING COMMITTEE ON THE GENERAL THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY.

The Standing Committee on the General Theological Seminary respectfully report :

That there is no vacancy in the Board of Trustees to be filled by election of this Convention, nor anything in the present condition of the Seminary calling for its action ; though the additions to its material fabrics, within the year, of three professors' houses, now nearly completed, and the large number of accessions, this fall, to the roll of students in both the junior and middle classes, are worthy of note, as evident tokens of the prosperous condition and steady progress of the Seminary under its present administration.

Respectfully submitted.

The Rev. Wm. J. Seabury, D.D.	Mr. Irving Grinnell.
The Rev. F. B. Van Kleeck, D.D.	Mr. Winthrop Sargent.
The Rev. Charles F. Canedy.	Mr. John A. Beall.
The Rev. B. E. Backus, D.D.	Mr. Douglas Merritt.

The order of the day, the report of the Committee on Canons, was called for, and on motion of Mr. Delano C. Calvin, it was resolved to take action separately on the various recommendations of the Committee.

After some discussion, the amendment proposed to Canon II. was not adopted.

The question being next on the amendment proposed to Canon IX., Mr. George Zabriskie moved to strike out the following paragraph :

If the election is not completed on the first ballot, not more than two candidates for each vacancy remaining shall be eligible on any subsequent ballot, the two eligible candidates being those of the same order who received the highest number of votes, after those elected on the ballot immediately preceding.

Which was adopted.

On motion of the Rev. E. A. Hoffman, D.D., the last paragraph was amended so as to read as follows :

Resolved, That the Secretary shall print the names of the present members of the Standing Committee, Deputies and Provisional Deputies to General Convention and the Federate Council, on the back of each of the ballots provided by the Secretary.

The question being on the Canon as amended, was not adopted.

On motion of the Rev. W. S. Coffey, the subject of the custody of Parish Registers was recommitted to the Committee, with instructions to report at the next Diocesan Convention.

On motion of Mr. Delano C. Calvin, the following resolution was adopted :

Resolved, That the pending motion to amend the Rules of Order be, and the same is hereby referred to a committee of three to consider the same, and any other needed changes, with instructions to report thereon at the next Convention.

The Chair appointed as such committee, the Rev. D. Parker Morgan, D.D., Mr. Delano C. Calvin, and Mr. J. B. Pine.

Mr. J. V. V. Olcott offered the following resolution, which was adopted :

Resolved, That the personal expenses of all of the Deputies from the Diocese of New York to the General Convention be paid by this Diocese, and that the Treasurer of the Diocese be authorized to pay the expenses of the several Deputies out of the Diocesan Fund, upon receiving from such Deputies proper certificates of their expenses.

On motion of the Archdeacon of Westchester, the Convention adjourned to sit as the Board of Diocesan Missions.

The Archdeacon of Westchester presented the following report :

Mr. James Pott, our Diocesan Treasurer, in reporting to the Board of Managers, thus describes the situation:

“In presenting our report of the Missionary Committee of the Diocese, we recognize that our work has its two aspects, one of encouragement and one of discouragement.

“The several reports of the Archdeacons which accompany this report give account of much faithful work accomplished during the past year, together with a most encouraging outlook for the future.

"Our financial statement, on the other hand, shows that our contributions for Diocesan Missions are $3,000 behind those of last year, viz. : $16,606, against $19,729 in 1891, thus leaving us without the needed sum to meet the stipends due to our Missionaries on the 1st of October next.

"Had it not been for individual contributions, our treasury would have been placed in a most embarrassing position. We take this opportunity of returning our sincere thanks for these gifts; one gift especially, of $1,000, through the hands of the Bishop, removed a weight of anxiety from the Treasurer's mind.

"It is not our purpose to present a lengthy report, or to make any extended appeal, and yet because we recognize the importance of our work, we cannot resist the strong desire of impressing it upon others.

"In our country towns and villages we see the reservoir of good or of evil to our city. Upon this subject, as you know, statistics present most startling facts. Could we deal as we ought with these sources in our country districts, we might not find it so difficult, as we do, to greatly modify some of the evils which almost overwhelm our city. We recognize the hard task which falls to the lot of a Missionary who is striving not alone to build up the Episcopal Church, but to plant amid the dwellers of our rural parishes the seeds of morality and righteousness. He works alone, and without the pecuniary aid which flows so freely to the city Rector. Ought we not to sympathize with and help him? Perhaps, with God's blessing, we may be able to render the streams which flow into the ocean of our city life somewhat purer, and so stem the tide of corruption at its source."

The last sentence suggests the fact that, at least, in one of our Archdeaconries, we have tapped the lakes and sources of our streams, to send into this great city the water supply. Without it New York would be athirst. The Churches of New York, by their bountiful and yearly gifts, are making it possible for the country to bring the Word and the Sacraments to souls that need them in our rural Archdeaconries; that the men and the women we contribute to your world and life may be as healthful and pure and morally wholesome as the other blessing we bestow.

The Archdeacon of Dutchess reports steady work in the stations. Two rectories have been built, one at Millbrook, the other at Pine Plains. An interesting work of faith has been undertaken for a number of years by a band of earnest women, looking after the religious needs of the neglected people who dwell in the mountains west of Pawling. They earn a bare subsistence by the burning of charcoal and the making of baskets. Many of them are densely ignorant, and the whole community notoriously dissipated and lawless. Murders are not infrequent among them. Through the solicitation of those who previously worked amongst the people, the work has been handed over to the care of the Archdeaconry of Dutchess. The ladies interested in the Mission at Stone House agree to give $500 annually for five years, and the Archdeaconry agrees to place in the field an efficient man, who will devote some time daily to the instruction of the young, and also do such evangelistic work as necessity demands. In the death of the Rev. Robert B. Van Kleeck, the Archdeaconry lost a valuable laborer, one who for his kindness and fidelity will long be remembered by those whose happy fortune it was to come in contact with him.

The Archdeacon of Orange reports that services are maintained at twenty stations. Vigorous work at the various points has, by God's blessing, produced encouraging results. The new Church at Port Jervis has been completed and consecrated. It is a substantial stone building, well appointed and commodious, and occupies a desirable and commanding site. The outlook here is decidedly encouraging. At Pine Hill the handsome church has been completed, and at a recent visitation of the Bishop five persons were confirmed. The Rev. George C. Houghton has rendered efficient service as Priest in charge for the season. Estimating the gifts to the Church at very moderate figures, the building and furniture have cost about $6,000, and the building committee consider that on October 1st about $1,000 will represent the sum total of the indebtedness. At Mead's Mount Home, Woodstock, Ulster Co., services have been held during the summer. An acre of land has been donated for the site of a chapel, and a plain building will be erected for worship by the spring of 1893. To the Misses Bolton, of Bolton Priory, and Mrs. Augusta E. Cribbe, of Rochester, the Archdeacon gives the credit for the initiation of this enterprise, and the raising of the funds for its completion. Near Big Indian, in the Catskills, the Rev. Wm. Fisher Lewis has secured the use of a building, formerly a school-house, for Church purposes, and next summer hopes to hold regular services therein.

The Archdeacon of Westchester reports twenty-four Parishes and stations served by eighteen missionaries. An old Parish revived, St. Luke's, Haverstraw, with an earnest of permanent life, has been an interesting feature of the year. The people have a mind to work and give; the services and Sunday-school are well attended. The Rev. C. W. Bolton, of Pelhamville, is building a substantial church, with prospect of a brighter future for his Parish with this much-needed improvement. The work at Lake Mahopac and Kent Cliffs has had wise and strong administration under the Rev. August Ulmann, and is showing increased interest. A long-standing debt of St. John's, Lewisborough, of $1,500, has been discharged; and during the summer the old Church at South Salem, that has been closed for long time on account of losses among its people, has been reopened and served by our Missionary, Rev. Mr. Selleck. The Rev. Thomas Stephens, the faithful veteran of our corps, finds in his many stations, and new work constantly undertaken, wide range for his apostolic zeal and broad heart. He has reduced the debt on the property at Spring Valley this year more than one half, leaving $450 as the balance on September 1st.

The Archdeacon of Richmond reports that the Rev. Dr. Wasson, of Eltingville, marks a gain of seventeen communicants for the year, a Sunday-school of seventy-five members, and the sum of $900 given for a Parish House, which will be completed this autumn. An interesting feature of Dr. Wasson's work has been the entertainment of a number of poor children during the summer, from New York. In the Mission among the Germans, carried on by this same Missionary, the Sunday-school and night service show a growing attendance. The Rev. Mr. Bell, of the Erastina Mission, reports: Communicants, thirty-three; confirmations, nine; baptisms, four; Sunday-school, fifty. At Tottenville the services have been continued through the year by Lay Readers, but the Rev. Mr. Richards has been called, and the Archdeacon hopes he may be secured for this Parish. The property is free from debt, and there is prospect of encouraging growth. Services have been continued throughout the year at the County Poor-house by the Clergy of the Archdeaconry. The Rev. Mr. Wood has held occasional services at the Mariners' Hospital. All of the Arch-deaconries have met and exceeded the sum of apportionment placed upon them by the Board of Managers last year.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

F. B. VAN KLEECK, }
HENRY L. ZIEGENFUSS, } Committee.

The Archdeacon of Westchester offered the following resolution, which was adopted :

Resolved, That as this Convention has heard from the Treasurer of the Board of Missions that a deficiency exists, some action looking towards meeting this need should be taken. We believe that any apportionment this Convention may assign the Parishes, with the urgent opportunities of Diocesan Missionary work before them, will meet with ready response.

The Archdeacon of Orange offered the following resolution, which was adopted :

Resolved, That the sum of $17,000 be appropriated for Missionary work in the Diocese outside the limits of the city of New York, and that said sum be apportioned as follows :

From Archdeaconry of Dutchess.....	$1,500
“ “ “ Orange.....	1,000
“ “ “ Westchester.....	1,800
“ “ “ Richmond.....	800
“ “ “ New York.....	11,900
Total.....	$17,000

The Archdeacon of New York moved that the following elected members of the Board be reelected for the ensuing year, which was adopted :

On motion of Mr. Edward Merritt, the following resolution was adopted :

Resolved, That the Right Reverend Chairman appoint a committee to arrange for a Missionary meeting to be held during the sitting of the Convention of 1893.

The Chair appointed as such Committee :

The Rev. John W. Brown, D.D.
The Rev. W. R. Thomas, D.D.	Mr. James Pott.

At the request of the Chair, the Rev. F. L. H. Pott addressed the Board of Missions with reference to his Mission work in China.

On motion of the Archdeacon of Westchester, the Board of Missions adjourned, and the Convention resumed its session.

The Rev. Dr. Greer offered the following resolution, which was adopted :

Resolved, That the action of this Convention on the proposed Canon of Elections be reconsidered.

The Rev. Dr. E. A. Hoffman offered the following resolution, which was adopted :

Resolved, That the report of the Committee on Canons recommending an addition to Canon IX., with the amendments adopted by this Convention, be referred to a committee of seven, to report thereupon at least ten days before the next Annual Convention ; said report to be printed, and sent by the Secretary of Convention to every member of the next Annual Convention at least one week before the day appointed for the meeting of said Convention.

The Bishop appointed as such Committee :

The Rev. W. S. Rainsford, D.D.

The Rev. Thos. R. Harris, D.D.

Mr. Elihu Chauncey.

The Rev. W. H. Benjamin, D.D.

Mr. John H. Glover.

The Rev. A. B. Carver.

Mr. Robert C. Fisher.

The Rev. C. F. Canedy, in behalf of the Committee of Conference on the Qualifications of Voters, reported progress, and on his motion the committee was continued, and so much of the Bishop's Address as bore on the subject was referred to said committee.

On motion of Mr. Chas. H. Kitchel, the Committee on the Incorporation of Churches was continued.

The Rev. D. Parker Morgan, D.D., offered the following resolution, which was adopted :

Resolved, That 1,800 copies of the Journal of this Convention be published and distributed under the direction of the Secretary.

The Rev. Mr. Canedy offered the following resolution, which was adopted :

Resolved, That the thanks of the Convention be and are hereby tendered to the Rector, Wardens, and Vestrymen of the Church of the Holy Trinity for the very thorough provision made by them for the comfort and for the hospitable entertainment of the Convention.

The Secretary presented and read the following report :

Report

OF THE STANDING COMMITTEE ON THE DIOCESAN FUND.

The Standing Committee on the Diocesan Fund respectfully recommend to the Convention the adoption of the following resolutions, viz.:

Resolved, 1. That there be paid to the Clergy attending the Convention, who reside more than twenty miles from the place of meeting, and whose parishes have contributed to the Fund, as required by the Canon, ten cents for every mile of the distance from their respective parishes, and that the remainder be appropriated to paying for the printing of the Journal of the Convention, and the canonical, customary, and prescribed expenses of the Diocese.

Resolved, 2. That the contribution to be required, according to Canon XV. of the Diocese, from every Congregation of the Diocese to the Diocesan Fund for the Conventional year 1892-93 be one per cent. on the amount of the salary of its Clergyman.

AUGUSTUS WIGGIN.

LEWIS C. POPHAM.

JAMES POTT.

On motion of the Secretary, these resolutions were adopted.

The Secretary presented and read the following report :

Report

OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE CERTIFICATES OF LAY DELEGATES.

The committee appointed to examine the certificates of Lay Delegates to this Convention, respectfully reports by its chairman, the Rev. Dr. Backus, that it has looked over the certificates handed to it by the Secretary, and finds all of them correct, with one exception, that of St. Andrew's Church, S. I., which is irregular in form and defective in matters required by the Canon, such as date of election, etc.

The Minutes were read and approved, and after the customary closing prayers, said by the Rev. Dr. Dunnell, the Bishop gave the Blessing of Peace, and the Convention adjourned sine die.

H. C. POTTER,

Bishop of New York.

APPENDIX A.

BISHOP'S ADDRESS

TO THE ONE HUNDRED AND NINTH CONVENTION OF THE

BRETHREN OF THE CLERGY AND LAITY :

There are, of every diocese and parish, as of every individual soul, two histories, only one of which can be recorded here. We are not called upon to disparage those evidences of life and growth which are afforded by ecclesiastical statistics, and so long as we are stewards of material as well as spiritual things, of bodies as well as of souls, any attitude of that sort must be only a silly affectation. But it belongs to us to remember that the things that are seen and temporal are means, not ends ; and that the true life of the Church does not consist in numbers, or fabrics, or machinery, any more than the life of man consists of meat, or his body of raiment. The past year has been a remarkable year in the story of its material progress, and we cannot gather here to-day—coming, as many of us do, fresh from the impressive Consecration Service of day before yesterday, and surrounded as we are by the very gratifying and most admirable evidences of enrichment and improvement in the edifice within which we are now assembled—without remembering that never during its history of one hundred and eight years has this Diocese, in any one of those years, or, indeed, in any five of them, added to its catalogue of Church edifices so many and such worthy buildings as during the year which ends to-day. Zion and St. Timothy, St. Michael's, New York ; St. Margaret's, Staatsburgh ; the Church of the Transfiguration, Pine Hill ; Grace Church, Port Jervis ; St. Agnes' Chapel, New York, consecrated day before yesterday ; St. Luke's in the North, New York, now rapidly approaching completion—all of them, with a single exception, built of stone, and no one of them undeserving here of detailed mention and description, were there time for it—comprise only a partial list of the Church edifices which have been added to our roll of newly erected and beautifully appointed churches during the past year. And the growth in numbers of those who are to worship in these structures and in others like them, has more than kept pace with this noteworthy and exceptional progress. As never before in her history, the Church enjoys the confidence and respect of those who are without her, and these are turning, in daily increasing numbers, from inadequate and unsatisfactory provision for their spiritual training and nurture, and most of all for the expression of their highest instincts of worship, to the devout and edifying ways of our venerable and beautiful liturgy, and our pure and primitive order. May we have increasing wisdom for our increasing responsibilities, and, most of all, humility such as becomes those who have too often but poorly appreciated a noble heritage, and but feebly improved their great opportunities.

The record of Episcopal Acts during the past year is substantially as follows :

Presbyter deposed from the Ministry	1

In submitting to you the list of Candidates for Holy Orders, I have, as heretofore, asked your especial attention ; and in regard to the matter of the conditions under which persons are admitted to such standing in the Diocese, I must again invoke your careful and impartial vigilance. Some day it may be necessary for me to rehearse some of the very painful experiences which have fallen to my lot in connection with the amiable but precipitate indorsement, by Rectors of parishes and others, of persons seeking to become Candidates for Holy Orders. Is it necessary for me to say that the desire, however earnestly expressed, of any one to become a Candidate for Holy Orders is, taken by itself, no slightest evidence of his worthiness to be admitted to such a standing ? Is it necessary for me to remind intelligent men, whether of the Clergy or Laity, that they cannot read their correspondence or go about their daily business without being constantly and painfully reminded of the large and steadily increasing class of persons in Holy Orders who have, only too plainly, gravely misapprehended both the nature of ministerial qualifications, as this Church insists upon them, or the conditions under which, ordinarily, the Ministry is to be exercised in these United States ? Is it necessary that I should further remind those to whom I speak that if a man is a fool or a knave, the gift of Holy Orders will work no such miracle upon him as will make him a scholar and a saint ? There is, it must be owned, a good deal of unreality in many of the arguments which excuse the admission of incompetent men into Holy Orders on the ground of the sacrifices and self-denials to which they pledge themselves. Those who compare it with other callings decline to admit that the Ministry is any longer, as a rule, a calling of exceptional hardship and self-denial. There is absolutely no other whose material rewards, they tell us, are on the whole so considerable, so early, and, as a rule, so constant. There are, doubtless, men in the Ministry whose earnings would be greater in other callings, but they are not many ; and over against such a fact is to be set the more or less adequate provision for old age which, in a great many other callings, does not exist at all. And when you add to these considerations the further fact that, in so many cases, social and other privileges are opened, by entrance into the Ministry, to those who otherwise would in all probability never attain them, there seem to many people to be good and sufficient reasons why Rectors of parishes, and others who are charged with the responsibility of encouraging or assisting young men to enter the Holy Ministry, should be increasingly vigilant in their scrutiny of applicants, and resolute in their discouragement of incompetent or unfit persons. The true glory of a Diocese, or a Divinity School, is in the quality, not the number, of its students or candidates, and just in proportion as there are persons whose way into the Ministry is paid for them, quite independently of their own exertions or self-denials, should vigilance and firmness in regard to their antecedents, their conduct, and their attainments be alert and unshrinking.

And the same vigilance should preside over our choice in the several parishes of those who, as Wardens and Vestrymen, are to administer its affairs. I have already referred at length to this matter in a Charge delivered to the Convention, but I recur to it now in order to call attention to the fact that, from various causes, no united action has yet been taken by the several Dioceses included in this State in regard to the amendment of the law of parish elections ; and to suggest that it is much to be desired that concerted effort for the amendment of the present Statute of the Incorporation of Churches, for providing a proper registry of voters, and for a fixed system of rotation in office, should not longer be delayed. At present, parishes are but imperfectly guarded against the possibilities of revolutionary action by irresponsible persons ; and, under any circumstances, a condition of things which makes it possible for a few unscrupulous or disaffected individuals, with a little adroitness, so to plan and contrive that in a single year, and at any one election, an entire Vestry may be dismissed from office, and others chosen who may be, for every reason, incompetent to and unfitted for the administration of its affairs, is greatly to be deplored. The eligibility of persons to be elected Wardens needs also to be defined, and local traditions as to the succession of particular persons to that office should be dismissed from the unwarranted place which in the usage of some parishes they have obtained. In a word, the law should be made to provide that the best men for whatever position should be eligible for election, and that tried and tested servants of the Church should not be hastily and unwarrantably displaced from office. These and other considerations make it desirable that our excellent committee having this matter in charge should be instructed and urged to harmonize proposed action with that of our Sister Dioceses in the Federation of New York, and to hasten such action to its efficient conclusion.

For reasons which I have already recited in previous Addresses, it is not my custom to discuss contemplated action by the General

Convention, nor to attempt to take advantage of an approaching meeting of that body to create a sentiment for or against particular measures. But as, within a week, another General Convention will, God willing, be assembled, and as it is likely that such action will be taken as shall release the Prayer Book from its fluid state, and fix its various formularies, as I hope, for a long time to come, it is my duty to remind you that with such action a considerable license which has obtained among us may wisely and appropriately end. Much greater freedom in the use of the Prayer Book than existed of old; enrichments and abbreviations of Services which, I believe, experience will increasingly prove to be judicious and valuable; more adequate provision for occasional Services, and the like—all these are only some of the advantages which have been secured. But they will be largely bereft of their value if they are made the occasion for individual departures from rubrical restraints or personal eccentricities of usage and practice. There may have been times when some of these were excusable, or at least tolerable, but if so, such times are not these times. In an age impatient of restraint, and eager in the assertion of individual license, the Church will not alone reveal its power, but greatly increase its attractiveness to an increasing number of earnest minds, by presenting the spectacle, as far as may be, of a reverent uniformity. Variety of use in cities may be tolerated as a means of providing for wide differences of culture and intelligence; but a prevailing diversity which makes it impossible for any one person to be at home in the usages of the Church anywhere outside of his own parish, is a rather dreary commentary upon our accustomed boast concerning the advantages of a liturgical worship as a relief from the foolish and unedifying vagaries of individualism. If you and I, dear brethren, could know how devout souls are grieved and hindered in their highest life by such a condition of things, I am persuaded that we would more earnestly set about mending it; and it is pertinent to the action soon, as I trust, to be taken in regard to the Prayer Book, and which will, I think, happily deny to us any further liberty of throwing overboard or taking on board, in connection with its contents, that I should invoke your coöperation in a more scrupulous observance than ever before of its rubrical directions, and of a careful avoidance of those things which the law of the Church does not explicitly authorize. I am very sure—for you have never disappointed me in anything that I have felt it my duty to ask of you—that you will not deny to me this coöperation, and I am no less persuaded that you will spare me the painful necessity of taking such action, in case of persistent disregard to the law of the Church, as the vows of my office make obligatory. There are some of you, I know, who think that already I have too long delayed such action. Concerning this, much might be said which would not be pertinent here. But this much is certainly true, that whatever reasons for such delay may have seemed to exist in the situation during the past ten years, that situation no longer exists. Prayer Book amendment and enrichment are at an end, and our personal fancies should now yield to the Church's established order.

During the past nine years I have not in any single instance, I believe, referred to the matter of the Cathedral, and this silence I now break for the first time. It will be enough to say that for four of these years, during the life of my venerated predecessor, I did not feel myself at liberty, as an Assistant Bishop, to initiate any original action concerning a matter in regard to which he had already addressed you. Since then, what has been done has been sufficiently made known to you in other ways than this, and I have delayed reference to the matter until now, in order that it might be sufficiently advanced to warrant my commending it to your attention and interest with a reasonable prospect of its efficient progress. That point I am thankful to say has now been well-nigh reached. For the very costly but very noble site, which has, I am told, doubled in value since we acquired it, satisfactory provision has been so far advanced that a cordial and united effort ought soon to complete it. We shall then be in a position to lay the corner-stone, with the prospect that considerable bequests and subscriptions already made will be at least partially available for the work of construction ; and though it will not be practicable, as had been hoped, to lay the corner-stone on All Saints' Day (to which date for that service, however, I am bound to add, very numerous objections had been urged, by Bishops and Clergy, who represented it as a day when their presence was imperatively demanded in their own parishes)—though I say it will not be practicable to lay the corner-stone on All Saints' Day, I am not without hope that this may be done on St. John the Evangelist's day, or soon thereafter. Meantime, I am glad to say that a considerable amount of preparatory work has been done by the Trustees, to whom, for their constant and cordial coöperation, I desire here to express my personal acknowledgments. The matter of a design, and of the choice of those who should, as architects, begin the work, has involved an amount of labor which few can appreciate, and which has been performed in a very thorough and painstaking way. The Trustees, while wisely refraining from committing themselves irrevocably to any particular plan, have made choice of two gentlemen associated as architects, whose services will be given to preparing suitable designs for at least a part of the structure, so that a beginning may be made, and some such portion of the building as will suffice for the maintenance of public worship be provided.

To accomplish this it will be necessary for me to invoke, as I have not yet done, the general coöperation of the Diocese—of its Clergy and Laity, its men, women, and children. It is very gratifying to be able to state that already, without any public appeal, and with very little individual solicitation, over a million of dollars has been subscribed or bequeathed to the Cathedral, and that from both within and without the Diocese—as, in one memorable instance, from the Diocese of Connecticut—these gifts and bequests have come. As yet, however, they have come mainly in large sums, and from a few individuals, while for every reason it is to be desired that in such an enterprise all should have a place, and that the Diocesan Church should be a Diocesan work and interest. During the coming winter, therefore, I propose, God willing, to submit to the Clergy and people of the Diocese certain methods for accomplishing this result, and to ask in the initiation of these plans the help, in whatever measure, or by whatever means, of every individual who is willing to give it to me. I cheerfully recognize the fact that, as between parochial enterprises and those, even though it be such a one as this, which are outside of them, the latter must take the second place. But I hope you will be willing to give the Cathedral at least that second place, and to help me in securing it. I am steadfastly purposed, let me say, that it shall not be unduly forced upon your notice. There is something, I must own, inexpressibly repugnant to me in the thought that this undertaking should be so persistently obtruded upon your consideration as that it should come, at last, to be regarded as an intolerable burden, and its advocate an intolerable nuisance. There is happily no smallest necessity for that. Much wiser men, of more competent practical judgment and experience than I, have cheerfully admitted that the Cathedral will be built, and that gifts and bequests will be forthcoming with which to build it. But this will require much personal labor, and, on the part of the whole Diocese, a cheerful and generous coöperation. Personally, I must confess to my extreme regret that I have been able thus far to do so little in a matter for which, as you know, I have written and reasoned for now more than twenty years. From time to time I have hoped that I might command the leisure for personal advocacy and presentation of the work ; but I may not for this neglect those primary duties to which I have been set apart, and these, as you know, have, during the past ten years, increased in an unprecedented degree. It has occurred to me that I might in some one year, between October and June, secure four or five months, to be given exclusively to presenting and pushing forward the work of the Cathedral, and this, with the coöperation of my brethren the Archdeacons, and the assistance of some neighboring Bishop, might, with the approval of the Convention, be specifically arranged. The Convention can readily understand that a task so large as that to which I have thus far referred, cannot be performed in those scanty fragments of time which are all that are ordinarily at the command of the Bishop of this Diocese.

Meantime, let me add that Services were begun on the Feast of the Circumcision, January 1st of the present year, in the spacious building at present occupying a portion of the site of the Cathedral, and have been continuously maintained ever since. I trust that the Clergy and laity will make themselves familiar with these, with the great opportunity afforded us in our unequalled site, and, most of all, that they will give me in this work the cheering assurance of their sympathy and support.

The events of the past few months, in our own country as well as others, would seem to indicate that before another Convention we are to be called upon to confront in their gravest forms those conditions of peril which come with the invasion of pestilence. In this connection the question of setting forth some special form of Prayer has been brought to my attention, and I am sure we are none of us insensible to the need, in this as in every emergency of life, of invoking the Divine Guidance and Aid. But I am no less sure that you will agree with me that such Prayers are only an act of presumption unless along with them there goes that reasonable use of every approved method for the preservation of life and health which is the dictate of sound reason. The sacredness of the body gets a new meaning in the light of the Divine Incarnation, and as an instrument of the highest service to which man is called, it is worthy of his most reverent care. To inculcate such care, to show the intimate relations between health and usefulness, virtue and happiness, is no unworthy object for some of those many parochial agencies which, especially in cities, are seeking to better the condition and gladden the lives of men. The pulpit may well be reserved for those highest uses to which it is set apart; but in the Parish House, in the Guild or Sewing-school, in Men's or Girls' Clubs, and the like, there will be abundant opportunity, during the coming winter, to disseminate sound teaching and an informing literature concerning the reverent guardianship of that Temple of the Holy Ghost which is the human body, and to organize those agencies for ministry and relief in coming emergencies which may help to bring to the sick and suffering ministrations both to the body and to the soul, at such times preëminently needed.

And in this connection I beg to commend to your sympathy and support the work of our Church Mission to Seamen. Here is an agency capable of indefinite enlargement along the lines to which I have just referred, having its field of work, as the recent tragic experience of the city of Hamburg has shown, in those very parts of our own metropolis which will be likely to be early invaded by an epidemic coming to us from abroad; with an exceptionally large and devoted body of gentlemen in its board of management, and with faithful and efficient missionaries, who have already proved their readiness to spend and be spent in the service of Christ and His poor. Under such circumstances, it would seem to be eminently our duty to strengthen its hands, and to enlarge its capabilities of usefulness by every means in our power.

One of these, let me add here, is in connection with the Service of Song. In our Floating Chapels, Seamen's Bethels, as also in connection with the Church's work in our public institutions, there is a very gracious opportunity for voluntary ministries of our church choirs, or for such members of them as, in accordance with the admirable example afforded in connection with the Guild of St. Elizabeth, are willing, on Sunday afternoons and at other times, to give to the weary and heavy laden, the sick and the stranger, the consolations of Sacred Song. I wish we might have in connection with our Seamen's Mission and City Mission work, some choir guild, or other similar auxiliary for promoting this end.

I have spoken of the dangers of pestilence, but such reminders of the shortness and uncertainty of human life are not the only ones that come to us on an occasion like this. The names that drop out of our secretary's roll, to appear there no more, are witnesses of that steady march which we are all making to join the majority, and which cannot be stayed by any vigilance or precautions. During the past year the Church here has lost from among its chief pastors two who were for many years Presbyters of this Diocese, and whose names and ministries will always be fragrant among us. I remember with a vividness which belongs only to the keenest experiences of one's life, being present as a youth at a service in the Church of the Ascension, New York, at that time but recently deprived, by his consecration as Assistant Bishop of Ohio, of the ministry of Dr. Gregory Thurston Bedell. Already he had been followed by an able and gifted successor, but the air was still surcharged with the sorrow of his departure, and the aspect of his people betrayed their sense of a vast and irreparable loss. It was no wonder, for he was a man whose ministry included a singular symmetry of gifts and a preëminent charm in their exercise. And when he came to take upon him the wider responsibilities of the Episcopate, it was to illustrate in every personal and official relation the same engaging qualities. A courageous and unfaltering friend of foreign missions, the wise counsellor of our women's work in the Church, and an exemplar of every Christian grace in his family and among his Clergy, he will be widely mourned and tenderly and gratefully remembered.

And so will the late Bishop of Louisiana, some time Rector of Zion Church in this city, and, as such, known and beloved by many to whom I speak this morning. Broken in health long before he laid down his heavy burden, he toiled on to the end, and though so tortured by the malady which finally cost him his life, that—as a brother Bishop, who once discovered him in that condition in a railway car in a remote part of the South, described to me—he was liable to die in the most excruciating pain at any moment, those who knew him most intimately will remember him as cheerful and uncomplaining to the end, devoted to his flock, in love with his work, and never so happy as when doing it.

No less was true of another, the Right Rev. Dr. William Jones Boone, for little more than six years Bishop of Shanghai, and who died just after our last Convention. A missionary by inheritance, Bishop Boone was no less a missionary by earnest choice and long-continued service, and one who, confronted with many discouragements, wrought and toiled with equal patience and constancy till at length he fell, worn out in the service, at his post.

From our own Diocesan family we have lost of the Clergy, the Rev. Abram Bloomer Hart, the Rev. Robert Boyd Van Kleeck, and the Rev. Samuel W. Young—the first named the Senior Presbyter of this Diocese, I believe, in point of continuous service, and a familiar figure, with his gracious and courteous hearing, on the floor of this Convention. Mr. Hart ministered assiduously in parishes in this city for the exceptional period of nearly fifty years, and was a constant and punctual member of some of its most venerable corporations. Another, identified, ancestrally, with even a longer ministry in New York—that elder New York which once included what is now the Diocese of Albany—was the Rev. Robert Boyd Van Kleeck, to whose devout and faithful ministry I have elsewhere paid tribute, as I have to the memory of the Rev. Samuel W. Young, some time Rector of St. Peter's, Port Chester.

Besides these, we miss from our ranks of the faithful Laity, Mr. James Price, Vestryman (sixteen years) and Clerk of Vestry, Church of Heavenly Rest, New York ; Mr. Nathaniel Platt Bailey, Vestryman, Trinity Church, New York ; Mr. Carlisle Norwood, Vestryman (fifteen years), delegate to Diocesan Convention, Church of Incarnation, New York ; Mr. Wm. P. Woodcock, Warden, St. Matthew's Church, Bedford ; Dr. Charles D. Scudder, Vestryman, Calvary Church, New York ; Mr. Samuel S. Sands, of Grace Church ; Major Arthur Morris, Vestryman of the Church of the Holy Sepulchre, New York ; and others who were, many of them, wont to meet with us here.

We who remain, dear brethren, are baptized for the dead. Their works indeed do follow them. But no less do they remain, sometimes but begun, and oftener but partially complete, for you and me to take up and carry forward still farther toward the glorious end ! For this, which is our high calling of God in Christ Jesus, may He give us the spirit of love and of courage and of a sound mind !

The Treasurer desires to report a gratifying financial condition. The debt of $1,500 heretofore reported has been reduced by subscriptions amounting to $550. The pledges are so arranged as to insure the full payment of debt in three years. He also reports the existence of a floating debt of $400, covered by pew rents overdue. The ladies of the Church have refitted and decorated the Chapel, and paid for this and a handsome enclosed passage joining it to the Church, at a cost of about $1,100, and completed the payment in nine months. A generous box of clothing, etc., was also sent to a Western missionary by them. The cost of building and box is not included in the financial exhibit. A handsome altar of quartered oak and reredos, a brass litany desk, and ornaments for the altar were given this past Convention year by generous donors. The ladies also care for and clothe the poor of the village irrespective of religious affiliations.

During the year a house for Rectory purposes has been purchased and enlarged at a cost of $3,300. This includes land 80 feet by 137 feet. The interior of the Church has been put into thorough repair and a new carpet laid over the whole floor, at a cost of $434. The exterior will be repainted and the grounds put in order as early as possible, which will probably cost $150 more. The Head of the Church has greatly favored this parish during the year. He has raised up staunch friends for it, whose interest in its welfare seems to grow more intense and active year by year. On the 20th of June, 1891, a fête champêtre was held at the charming residence of Mr. J. D. Wing, the proceeds of which were $500 toward the Rectory Fund. The Grace Church Guild contributed $160 toward the renovation of the Parish Church. Through the kindly offices of the Brothers of Nazareth, friends in New York have given the parish a set of colored stoles.

The parish is entirely free from debt.

We find that our new church, which we thought would give us more than ample accommodations for some years to come, is already too small, every pew being rented, with demands for many more. We are therefore now considering plans for another edifice. We feel deeply grateful to God for having brought the parish, only two years old, to such proportions.

The annual Confirmation has not yet been held. The special class of eight here reported was supplemental to the larger class reported in last year's Journal. The sixty-eight services on other days besides Sundays and Holy Days include three series of cottage services conducted in remote localities of the city during the winter. The chapel, formerly occupied by the congregation, and sold last year to clear the present church of debt, is now rented and occupied by the Young Men's Club of the church, consisting of eighty members, recently organized. The building has been fitted with gymnasium and reading-room appliances. A fund has been contributed for securing an assistant minister. This report marks the first year's independency of the new parish, that in last year's Journal covering the first three months.

The present Rector entered upon his duties the first of May. He has not yet been able to obtain the Parish Register from the former Rector, although he has applied several times. His entire report therefore includes from the first of May to St. Michael's Day only. It should be borne in mind that the summer months have intervened, and this is the reason he is unable to give a summary of families, communicants, etc., from his own knowledge. Thus far he has obtained the addresses and records of more than two hundred families, but nothing accurate can be stated as yet, as rather more than one-third of these seem to be accessions since May 1.

During the past year our parish has lost more by the death and removal of prominent members than in any previous year of its history. The accessions have been small ; the losses great. The number of communicants is about the same as last year. Twenty-two persons are preparing for confirmation. Services have been held every Sunday in the year. Our church is never closed during the summer except for repairs. Services during the summer have been well attended, notwithstanding the intense heat.

In the eleven months of my Rectorship the people of this parish have been most liberal and kind, and are seconding all my efforts to carry forward the kingdom of Christ. The introduction of a vested choir has had a most beneficial influence in giving strength and vitality to the church services, arousing interest among the men and the boys, who have gladly given their time and voices without a money reward. The people welcome the improvement. The friends of the former Rector have erected a most beautiful and enduring memorial, in a window costing nearly $1,000. Several persons have given other memorials, in an altar, credence, shelf, and prayer desk for the chapel, and a large floriated brass altar cross for the altar in the church. Plans are prepared for a much needed rectory, and estimates for building are now being sought. Laus Deo!

As the missionary duties of this church extend to all New York City and Brooklyn (where there is not a Roman Catholic priest to minister to some 10,000 Spanish-speaking souls), the minister endeavors to persuade his parishioners to send their children to the Sunday-schools of their respective districts. The difference between income and expenditure is explained by the fact that a successful effort is now being made to collect contributions outside the flock, for the purpose of effectively accomplishing the work.

During this last year a friend of the parish has offered to give at Easter, 1893, $25,000, meanwhile paying the interest of this amount for a year, provided the parish will contribute an equal amount by that time for the reduction of the debt. Steps have been taken to secure this sum, and there is no doubt that by Easter, 1893, $50,000 will be secured and given for this purpose.

Brother Henry, recently of the Order of the Brothers of Nazareth, has labored in our parish during the past year most acceptably. His services here have suggested the propriety and desirability of having an order of lay serving brethren in parishes, in which men could devote their lives to Christian work, and with food and raiment be content.

It is earnestly hoped that this great work at St. Andrew's will be in such a condition at an early day that an east-side mission chapel can be opened in a locality craving spiritual ministrations, and now largely neglected.

St. Ann's Church continues to grow steadily. The migratory character of the neighborhood makes the congregation changeable ; in fact, it will not be long before the church's work in this vicinity will be very largely missionary in its character. The great number of tenement houses being erected to supply the demand of the working population now crowding into the annexed district make this inevitable. During the year the Ladies' Guild have completed, and paid for, the porch to the new chapel, a much appreciated improvement to the building. The church has a good gymnasium and reading-room for its young men. The Sunday-school is crowded and in a flourishing condition. The Young Ladies' Guild has continued its missionary work with satisfactory results. The income of the church has met its current expenses, and the treasurer has $1,000 in hand toward the completion of the tower of the chapel.

The parish gratefully acknowledges the services of members of the House for the Training of Deaconesses (under the direction of the Rev. Rector of Grace Church), in teaching for seven months during the year in the Sunday and Industrial Schools; also the kindness of a benevolent Christian woman, not a parishioner, who has generously provided, at her own expense, a club-room for the boys and young men of the parish, and furnished it with books and games. It is opened every evening except Sundays, and is used in the day-time for other church work.

The work of St. James' Mission has been removed from the rented hall in Avenue A to No. 419 East Eighty-third Street, where a building has been purchased and temporarily adapted to the increasing work. At the time when the change was made in May, the Rev. Edward H. Cleveland became Minister in Charge, the former missionary having removed to Vancouver in March. Four services have been held weekly, and there have been daily meetings for the various organizations, such as the Sunday-school, Kindergarten and Elementary Day School, Mothers' Meetings, Boys' Club and Band, Girls' Friendly Society, etc. A fuller report will be made next year.

The large amount of money expended "For the Poor" is due to a special donation for that purpose. During the past year a beautiful mosaic reredos, made in Rome, has been presented to St. Mary's by Mrs. J. Alfred Davenport, in memory of her husband, recently deceased, who was a vestryman of this parish. The mosaic is about six feet long by four feet broad, and represents three angelic figures, with musical instruments, praising God. The words, "Sanctus, Sanctus, Sanctus," appear above the figures, and the mosaic is intended to express the comfortable doctrine of "The Communion of Saints." This memorial is considered by some persons to be the most artistic small mosaic in the city.

The number of families and individuals is given as it stands on the parish books. A large proportion of baptisms and burials is among a floating population outside of the recorded congregation.

The offerings reported are those passing through the hands of the rector or treasurers of the guilds and societies of this church. Not appearing elsewhere, they are embraced in these returns. They include large gifts to the church building, organ and bells, and also some donations for charitable objects. The total offerings of the congregation were $10,799.90. Of the services reported, 46 were at the Bloomingdale Asylum and 42 at the Cancer Hospital.

The new church was consecrated by the Bishop of the Diocese on the 19th day of December, 1891. Its cost, including organ and ten bells, was about $180,000. Having nearly four times as many sittings as were in the old church, we are prepared for the growth of this portion of the city. The five services on Sunday, formerly obligatory on account of the scant accommodation, are continued in the new church, to afford to all the opportunity of worship at such time and also in such manner as they may elect.

There is daily service in the Chapel of the Angels at 9 A.M. and 5 P.M.

The hearty thanks of the rector and congregation are given to the former members of the parish, and to friends in the city, who, by their generous offerings, made possible the completion of this large and beautiful church without debt.

Plans for a new church and parish-house are under consideration. A fund for the furnishing of the latter is accumulating. We hope that the day is not far distant when the parish will be much better equipped for its work, and that next year we may be able to report that the parish-house, at least, is completed.

Services were held in the new church for the first time on Easter Day, 1892; and two days later, Tuesday in Easter Week, the church was consecrated by the Right Reverend the Bishop of Nebraska, acting for and in the absence of the Bishop of New York. It is extremely gratifying that this parish should be in possession of a well-located block of buildings, consisting of a large and handsome Church and Parish House (the one facing Fifty-seventh Street, and the other Fifty-sixth Street), without debt of any kind, but with the advantage of a very considerable endowment. The financial statement in the above report does not take into account the money expended on the work of building.

St. Andrew's Chapel, of which mention was made in last report, was consecrated December 5, 1891, and since that time has become the religious home of the bulk of the people of the neighborhood. Sunday evening services and a Sunday-school are maintained, both well attended. On Easter Monday work of unusual promise was begun at Arlington, a populous suburb of Poughkeepsie, unprovided with any worship save a union meeting. Week-night congregations number steadily 50 to 75. Sunday work will begin in October. A large lot has been secured, and a fund is forming for the erection of a chapel. Statistics of both missions included in preceding report. $12,000 is pledged, and in large part paid in, for alterations and enlargement of the Parish Church. A new chancel window is pledged. It is hoped to begin work this fall.

Rev. H. N. Tragitt (my predecessor) resigned about April 1, 1892. I took charge on July 31, 1892. The weekly Sunday service was continued by Rev. W. J. Clarke Agnew, Rector of Stone Ridge, up to the end of June. Local difficulties arose, and on my arrival, after conference with Mr. Agnew and the residents, it was deemed advisable to remove the service to another room (Kay's Hall, at Dashville), where the service is now undertaken regularly every Sunday afternoon, with an increasing congregation and satisfactory results. In the old hall we were not allowed to receive any offerings at the services. There is no such restriction in the new hall. This will explain the small amount of offerings, and the note, "three Sundays." A local Church Committee has been appointed to act with the Treasurer, and the members of the congregation are very much encouraged, and a marked development is expected at an early date. The mission is much indebted to the Rev. Mr. Agnew.

The Rev. H. N. Tragitt (my predecessor) resigned the charge of this church about April 1, 1892. I took charge July 31, 1892. In the interval the services have been carried on as far as possible through the kind assistance of Rev. W. J. C. Agnew, Rector of Stone Ridge. The Sunday-school has been carried on without intermission (during the interval) by the willing labor of Mrs. Hasbrouck, the wife of the treasurer. The people are very much encouraged by the appointment of a resident clergyman, and the work is in a very hopeful state. We hope to present a better record next year.

APPENDIX D.

CLERICAL REPORTS.

The Bishop of the Diocese has also received Reports, according to the Canon, from the following Clergymen of the Diocese not having Parochial or Missionary charge :

THE REV. SAMUEL M. AKERLY.

"I have to report : That I was in charge of Glenham Church, Dutchess Co., for two months and a half last autumn, during the illness of Mr. Van Kleeck, and in addition to this, officiated, whenever called upon to do so, as far as my health permitted. I officiated alone, and preached 12 times, and assisted 11 times. I also assisted at 17 services ; total, 40 times."

THE REV. EDWARD W. BABCOCK

"Respectfully reports : That until Lent he was Assistant to the Rector of St. Peter's Church, New York City ; and since then he has been Minister in charge of Calvary Church, Stonington, Conn."

THE REV. ALFRED B. BEACH, D.D.,

"Respectfully reports : That during the last year he has continued to reside in the village of Cooperstown, Otsego Co., N. Y., and that he has performed no services, being prevented by the state of his health."

THE REV. MERRIWETHER BRODNAX

"Respectfully reports : That during the last twelve months he has officiated, as opportunity offered, in this and adjoining dioceses."

THE REV. P. K. CADY, D.D.,

"Respectfully reports to the Bishop : That for eight months of the past Conventional year he has been engaged in the discharge of his duties as Professor in the General Theological Seminary, and for four he has assisted his son in the Parish of the Holy Cross, Warrensburgh, N. Y

THE REV. J. W. BONHAM

"Respectfully reports : That from July 1, 1891, to June 1, 1892, he served as Assistant Minister in the St. Augustine's Branch of Trinity Parish, New York City, until a permanent Assistant had been obtained. Since June 1st he has officiated in various churches in the Diocese of New York, and in adjacent dioceses."

THE REV. HENRY A. DOWS

"Respectfully reports : That during the Conventional year he has officiated from time to time in the following churches in New York City : St. Luke's Church, the Church of the Intercession, and the Church of St. Edward the Martyr."

THE REV. ARTHUR WENTWORTH H. EATON

"Respectfully reports : That from October 18, 1891, to September 25, 1892, in addition to much laborious work as instructor in English in the Cutter School, and to incessant literary work, he has preached 73 sermons ; conducted, or assisted, in 5 other services ; celebrated, or assisted in celebrating, the Holy Communion, 20 times ; baptized 12 persons ; married one couple ; conducted, or assisted in conducting, 3 funerals ; and presented a confirmation class of 36, which he had helped instruct. Four months of the year he was in temporary charge of Trinity Church, Bergen Point, N. J., three months, of St. Paul's, Paterson, N. J., and one month of St. Matthew's, Bedford, N. Y."

THE REV. WM. E. EIGENBRODT, D.D., Emeritus Professor of Pastoral Theology in the General Theological Seminary

"Respectfully reports : That during the last year he has been continually discharging the duties of the Ministry in the City of New York."

THE REV. J. BRECKENRIDGE GIBSON, D.D.

"I respectfully report : That during the last year I have been engaged in the pastoral, and other duties, of the school under my care. I have also assisted regularly in the services at Trinity Church in this place."

THE REV. HORATIO GRAY.

"During the past year I have officiated in various Parishes in the Dioceses of Massachusetts and Rhode Island, and during this month of October am officiating at St. Paul's, Stockbridge, Mass., in the absence of the Rector."

THE REV. EUGENE AUGUSTUS HOFFMAN, D.D., D.C.L., L.L.D., Dean of the General Theological Seminary

"Respectfully reports : That during the past year he has been engaged in the discharge of his duties as Dean of the General Theological Seminary, and frequently officiated for his brethren in this and other Dioceses. He has baptized two infants and officiated at four funerals, all of which were recorded in the Registers of the Parishes to which they belonged."

THE REV. ROBERT HOLDEN

"Respectfully reports : That since last Convention he has officiated, by request, in various Parishes ; Consecrated and administered Holy Communion 5 times ; read service in whole or part 28 times ; preached 18 times ; 1 baptism ; 1 funeral."

THE REV. THOMAS A. HYLAND.

"During the past year I have assisted in Divine Service whenever my health and opportunity would permit. I have preached 20 times, celebrated the Holy Communion 5 times, married one couple, and officiated at 3 funerals."

THE REV. JOHN VAUGHAN LEWIS, D.D.

"I have to report : That during the year past I have done full Sunday duty on twenty-six Sundays, as opportunity offered, chiefly in the Diocese of New Jersey. Baptisms 5, funeral 1 reported elsewhere. I am doing regular work as a writer for the Church journals."

THE REV. JOHN LIGGINS

"Respectfully reports : That he is still in too infirm health to officiate in the public services of the Church. He continues to furnish articles on missionary and other religious topics to Church periodicals."

THE REV. ROBERT LOWRY.

"During the past Conventional year I have performed 2 marriages, baptized 4 persons, and officiated at 3 funerals; I have administered the Holy Communion privately to a dying person, and publicly, at the Cliff House, Minnewaska, to 37 Communicants; I have read service, and preached 9 times at Lake Minnewaska, N. Y."

THE REV. JOHN P. LUNDY, D.D.

"It gives me much pleasure to report myself still able to do something for Christ and His Church; and that during the past Ecclesiastical year I have officiated on several occasions of Morning Prayer, and given some sermons and addresses.

"As President of the Pennsylvania Forestry Association, I have done what I could in writing and speaking against the wanton and suicidal destruction of our forests, more especially our mountain woods, that serve as a protection to our streams and rivers.

"Other literary work of a laborious kind has occupied me, so that rest for the entire summer, here at Lake St. John, became a necessity."

THE REV. WALTER MARVINE.

"I have the honor to report to you that during the year I have held Divine Service twice on each Sunday, besides the sessions of the Sunday-school: also on each Friday evening, with the exception of the month of August; a total during the year of 158 services; there have also been 2 baptisms, 1 marriage, 2 burials, 12 public and 3 private celebrations of the Holy Communion."

THE REV. W. A. MASKER.

"I respectfully report that during the past year I have served The Sheltering Arms as Rector and Superintendent of Mount Minturn. I have also officiated on Sundays upon the request of rectors and parishes."

THE REV. WILLIAM A. NEWBOLD.

"In rendering my annual report as a member of the Diocese of New York, I have the honor to state that I have had the privilege of acting as General Secretary of the American Church Missionary Society, one of the Auxiliaries of the Board of Missions. Our work in Brazil has largely increased, that in Cuba has been well maintained, and in the Domestic Field we have sent missionaries into twenty-two dioceses and missionary jurisdictions. The duties of my office have been largely increased, and are most interesting.

"During my summer vacation I take charge of the Church of the Holy Apostles, Belmar, N. J., and preach three times every Sunday. For the rest of the year I have no parochial duties, but present the cause of missions in the pulpits of our churches; and for this purpose I have made many journeys during the past year, and have been most kindly received."

THE REV. H. EDGAR PRATT

"Respectfully reports: That although he has taken no permanent cure since the Convention of 1891, he has rendered services in city and suburban parishes—All Soul's, N. Y.; Christ Church, Pelham, etc. Officiated at 3 baptisms and 2 funerals."

THE REV. THOMAS RICHEY, S.T.D.,

"Respectfully reports: That he has been regularly engaged in the discharge of the duties of his Chair, as Professor of English in the General Theological Seminary, for the past year."

THE REV. JOHN J. ROBERTS, D.D.

"Most respectfully reports : That, with the consent of the Bishop of the Diocese of Massachusetts, he has officiated, in his own house, in the town of Sandwich, for the past five months, there being no Episcopal Church-building in the town of Sandwich. He has, during the year, also officiated occasionally in the Dioceses of New York and Long Island."

THE REV. GEORGE SEABURY

"Respectfully reports : That during the past Conventional year he has performed such occasional duty—chiefly in assisting his brethren—as his health and other circumstances permitted."

THE REV. JOHN W. SHACKELFORD, D.D.

"I beg respectfully to report : That on November 28, 1891, I resigned the Rectorship of the Church of the Redeemer, New York, to place the Parish, in view of the mortgage on the property of the church, on a firmer financial basis. December 1st, following, I was elected General Missioner of the Parochial Missions Society for a term of six months, and spent the winter and spring in conducting missions in Syracuse and Rochester, N. Y. ; in Saginaw and Hastings, Mich. ; Jersey City Heights ; and in lecturing on the subject of Parochial Missions in Emmanuel Church, Baltimore, Trinity Church, Buffalo, and St. Paul's Church, Detroit, from July 1st to September 11th ; as Priest in charge, I conducted the services in Trinity Church, Cottage City, Mass., and am now taking charge of St. Luke's Church, Scranton, Pa., pending the advent of the incoming rector. On my retirement from the charge of the Church of the Redeemer, I was unanimously elected Rector Emeritus of the Parish."

THE REV. JESSE AMES SPENCER, D.D.

"I beg leave respectfully to report : That, during the past Canonical year, besides attending to the duties of Secretary of the Corporation for Relief of Widows and Children of Clergymen, and to preliminary work as Custodian of the Standard Bible of the Church, I have aided, on various occasions, in public services of the Church. I have also preached a few times when asked, and discharged some pastoral duty, such as visiting the sick, comforting the poor, officiating at funerals, etc. Being now in the fifty-third year of my ministry (ordained 1840), I strive daily, by God's help, to remember that 'the time is short,' and that my work, poor and imperfect as it has been, is now near to its close."

THE REV. J. J. ROWAN SPONG, M.A., B.C.L., LL.B.

"I have the honor to forward to you herewith my annual report : During the year ending August 31, 1892, I celebrated the Holy Communion 123 times ; assisted at the same 23 times ; said the Litany 41 times ; Matins, 111 times ; Evensong, 128 times ; administered Holy Baptism 17 times ; solemnized Holy Matrimony 7 times ; officiated at the Churching of Women 9 times ; and at the Burial of the Dead twice ; gave Religious Instruction 16 times ; Preached 70 times ; made Pastoral Visits 21 times. In addition to the above, I assisted three gentlemen in their preparation for Holy Orders."

THE REV. I. NEWTON STANGER, D.D.

"After resigning my parish in New York, I removed to this city, where, under the consent of the Bishop of Maryland, I have done clerical service in the various churches. Since the last of June I have been the locum tenens at St. John's Church, and shall remain in this capacity into October. I have thus been on duty nearly every Sunday, and, at times, during the week."

WASHINGTON, D. C.

THE REV. J. TUTTLE-SMITH, D.D.,

"Respectfully reports : That during the past year he has been travelling in Europe for the benefit of his wife's health, and has officiated and preached frequently in the Church of the Holy Trinity, Paris, and the Church of the Holy Spirit, Nice, France."

THE REV. S. H. TYNG, D.D.

"I beg to report : That since the date of the last Convention I have been constantly in Europe, and have not exercised during the year, except on private occasions, my ministry. I can only add, as I have done in years past, that my occupations for the present are regarded by me as simply temporary, awaiting the call of the Church in the event that any services which I may be able to render should be needed by you."

THE REV. MAUNSELL VAN RENSSELAER, D.D.,

"Respectfully reports : That during the past Convention year he has been engaged in the discharge of his duties as Chaplain of the House of the Holy Comforter, Free Church Home for Incurables, being assisted by the Rev. Arthur Mason. Four of the patients have been confirmed. There have been four funerals."

THE REV. WILLIAM WALSH.

"Since my last report I have diligently discharged my duty as a Presbyter in the various offices of the Church, chiefly in parishes in the Archdeaconries of Orange and Dutchess, and any special ministerial acts have been duly recorded in parishes to which they belonged."

THE REV. FRANCIS WASHBURN.

"I resigned the Rectorship of the Holy Spirit, Rondout, on the 1st of March, 1892. Since that time I have officiated about fifty times in about one half that number of places."

THE REV. BENJAMIN WEBB

"Respectfully reports : That in the course of the last year he has rendered these services, namely : Administration of the Lord's Supper 47 times ; public Baptism of Infants 3 times (number baptized, 7, duly registered) ; Morning and Evening Prayers 28 times."

THE REV. GEORGE H. WILSON

"Reports : That his health continues to improve, and that he hopes before long to be able to take active work."

THE
PROTESTANT EPISCOPAL CHURCH
IN THE DIOCESE OF NEW YORK.

As Adopted October 11, 1796 ; and Amended October 17, 1827 ; October 2, 1834 ;
October 4, 1839 ; September 29, 1843 ; September 26, 1850 ; September 28, 1860 ; September 28, 1882 ; and September 26, 1889.

ARTICLE I.

THERE shall be a Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in this Diocese on the last Wednesday in September in each year, in such place as shall be determined by the Bishop for the time being ; or, in case of his inability to act, or of a vacancy in the Episcopate, by the Standing Committee. In the event of the prevalence of any epidemic disease, or for other sufficient cause occurring after the designation of the place of the meeting of the Annual Convention, the Bishop, or in case of his inability to act, or of a vacancy in the Episcopate, the Standing Committee may appoint another place for the meeting of the Convention.

ARTICLE II.

The Bishop shall have power to call Special Conventions, when he may judge it conducive to the good of the Church ; and shall do so when applied to for that purpose by the Standing Committee ; and in case of a vacancy in the Episcopate, the Standing Committee shall have power to call a Special Convention.

ARTICLE III.

The Convention shall be composed of the officiating Ministers regularly received into this Diocese, and settled in some Church which is in union with this Convention ; and of Lay Members, consisting of not exceeding three Delegates from each Church, to be chosen by the Vestry or Congregation : and Clergymen employed as Missionaries under the direction of this Convention, and Clergymen engaged as Professors or Instructors of youth in any College, Academy, or General Seminary of Learning, duly incorporated, and Clergymen engaged as Superintendents or Chaplains in any incorporated Charitable Institution, may be members of the Convention. No Clergyman, however, shall have a right to a seat in the Convention, unless he has been canonically resident in this Diocese for the period of six months immediately preceding the meeting of the Convention.

ARTICLE IV.

Every Convention shall be opened with prayers and a sermon ; and the preacher shall be nominated by the Bishop, or in case of his inability to act, or a vacancy in the Episcopate, by the Standing Committee.

ARTICLE V.

The Bishop shall preside in the Convention ; but in case of a vacancy, or necessary absence, the members shall elect a President from among the Clergy.

ARTICLE VI.

A Secretary shall be chosen, upon the assembling of the Annual Convention, from among the members thereof, who shall remain in office until the meeting of the next Convention. His duty shall be to take minutes of their proceedings, to preserve their journals and records, to attest the public acts of the body, and faithfully to deliver into the hands of his successor all books and papers, relative to the concerns of the Convention, which may be in his possession. It shall also be his duty to give due notice to each Minister and Vestry of the time and place appointed for the meeting of the succeeding Convention.

ARTICLE VII.

In all matters which shall come before the Convention, the Clergy and Laity shall deliberate in one body ; and in voting, the Clergy shall vote by individuals, and the Laity by Congregations ; and when more than one Church or Chapel shall be united under one Vestry, and shall have been so united and recognized by the Convention, prior to the last Wednesday in September, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty-nine, the Delegate or Delegates of such Vestry only shall be entitled to a vote for each Church or Chapel ; and a majority of votes of the two orders jointly shall be decisive ; but if in any case it be required by five votes, the two orders shall vote separately in the manner aforesaid, and the concurrence of a majority of each order shall be necessary to constitute a decision. In the case of electing a Bishop, the two orders shall always vote separately, agreeably to the mode last prescribed.

ARTICLE VIII.

The mode of altering this Constitution shall be as follows : A proposition for an amendment shall be introduced in writing and considered in the Convention ; and, if approved of, shall lie over to the next Convention, and, if again approved of in such next Convention, by a majority of the two orders voting thereon separately, the change shall take place, and the Constitution so altered shall be valid and obligatory.

CANONS.

Adopted October 2, 1834 ; and amended October 4, 1839 ; October 1, 1841 ; September 30, 1842 ; September 29, 1843 ; September 27, 1844 ; September 26 and 30, 1845 ; September 29, 1848 ; September 26, 1851 ; October 1, 1852 ; September 29, 1859 ; September 28, 1860 ; October 2, 1863 ; September 27, 1866 ; November 15, 1867 ; September 29, 1870 ; September 28, 1872 ; September 25, 1873 ; September 28, 1877 ; September 26, 1884 ; October 1, 1885 ; September 30 and October 1, 1886 ; September 29, 1887 ; September 27, 1888 ; September 26, 1889 ; September 25, 1890 ; and October 1, 1891.

CANON I.

A List to be made of Ministers in the Diocese.

Within one week before the meeting of every Convention of this Diocese, the Bishop, or in case there be no Bishop, or of his inability or disability to act, then the Standing Committee of the Diocese, shall prepare, or cause to be prepared, a list of all the Ministers of the Protestant Episcopal Church canonically resident in this Diocese, annexing the names of their respective Cures or Parishes, or Stations as Missionaries, or of the Colleges, Academies, or other Seminaries or incorporated Charitable Institutions in which they are engaged ; or, in regard to those who are not engaged in Parishes, Missions, or Institutions of learning, as above, their places of residence only ; but no Clergyman while suspended from the Ministry shall have a place on the said list. Such list shall be recorded by the Secretary of the Convention in a book to be kept for that purpose, and be prefixed to the Journal.

CANON II.

Of the Members of the Convention and the Evidence of their Rights to Seats.

SEC. 1. A list of the names of all Clergymen entitled to seats in the Convention, under Article III. of the Constitution, shall be prepared by the Bishop, or in case there be no Bishop, or of his inability or disability to act, then by the Standing Committee. Said list shall be laid before the Convention on the first day of meeting, and shall be presumptive evidence of a right to a seat of all those whose names appear thereon.

SEC. 2. In case the right of any Clergyman of this Diocese to a seat in the Convention shall be disputed or claimed, it shall be determined according to the provision of the third Article of the Constitution by the Convention itself.

SEC. 3. The Secretary of the Convention shall record in a book, to be provided by him, and kept in accordance with the Canon of the General Convention, entitled "General Regulations of Ministers and their Duties," all certificates that shall be transmitted to him in accordance with said Canon.

In case of a contested right to a seat in the Convention of any Clergyman who shall have been elected to any Church or Parish in this Diocese, after the passage of this Canon, the evidence of settlement shall consist in the said record ; or in the production to the Convention of the certificate required by this Section, to be recorded as aforesaid, together with a certificate of the Bishop or of the Standing Committee, of his or their being satisfied that the person so chosen is a qualified Minister of this Church.

SEC. 4. Every Minister who may be received into this Diocese shall procure from the Bishop, or, in case of his disability or inability to act, from a majority of the clerical members of the Standing Committee, duly convened, a certificate that he has been received into this Diocese in compliance with the Canon of the General Convention. And before he shall be entitled to a seat in the Convention, he shall transmit such certificate to the Secretary, to be recorded in the book mentioned in the preceding Section. And in case of the contested right to a seat in the Convention of any Minister who may be received into this Diocese, the production of such record, or of such certificate, or of the Secretary's written acknowledgment of his receipt of the same, shall be presumptive evidence of regular admission, and the certificate, if not previously recorded, shall thereupon be recorded by the Secretary in the said book.

SEC. 5. In case of a contested right to a seat in the Convention of a Clergyman claiming such right by virtue of his being employed as a Missionary under the direction of this Convention, the evidence of such employment shall consist in the written certificate of the Bishop ; or, in case of a vacancy of the Episcopate, or of the inability or disability of the Bishop, in the written certificate of the Chairman of the Missionary Committee of the Diocese.

SEC. 6. In case of a contested right to a seat in the Convention of a Clergyman claiming such right by virtue of his being engaged as a Professor or Instructor of Youth in a College, Academy, or General Seminary of Learning, duly incorporated, the evidence of his connection with such College, Academy, or Seminary shall consist in the written certificate of the President or Secretary of such Corporation that he is so employed.

SEC. 7. (I.) Lay Delegates from Churches having Vestries shall be appointed by the Vestry, at a regular meeting, held according to law.

(II.) The evidence of the appointment of a Lay Delegate from a Church having a Vestry shall be a certificate signed by the Rector of the Church and by the Clerk of the Vestry. If there be no Rector, or if the appointment shall have been made at any legal Vestry meeting held in his absence, then such certificate shall state that fact, and shall be signed by the Warden who presides at the meeting at which such Delegate is appointed, and also by the Clerk of the Vestry. The certificate must show upon its face that the appointment has been made in accordance with all the requirements of the Canons, and shall certify that the Delegate is a Lay member, entitled to vote for Wardens and Vestrymen of the Church which he is appointed to represent.

(III.) The evidence of appointment of a Lay Delegate from a Church having no Vestry shall be a certificate signed by the Minister of such Church, or by the officer who presides at the meeting of the congregation by which he was appointed, and also by the Clerk or Secretary of such meeting. The certificate shall state the time and place of the election, and shall certify that the person appointed has been duly chosen by such Church or Congregation as a Lay Delegate ; that he is a Lay member of such Church or Congregation, and has been such member for at least twelve months next preceding the time of his appointment, and that the election was held in accordance with all the requirements of the Canons.

(IV.) No other certificate or evidence of appointment of any Lay Delegate than such as is above required shall be allowed or received.

SEC. 8. No Lay Delegate from a Church having a Vestry shall be entitled to a seat in the Convention, unless he be entitled to vote for Wardens and Vestrymen of the Church which he is appointed to represent.

SEC. 9. A copy of the seventh and eighth sections of this Canon shall be transmitted annually by the Secretary of the Convention to every Church in this Diocese in union with the Convention, together with a blank printed form of certificate of appointment of Lay Delegates, and the notice which he is required by the Constitution to give of the time and place appointed for the meeting of the succeeding Convention.

SEC. 10. It shall be the duty of the Clerks of the Vestries of the Parishes which have been admitted into union with this Convention, immediately after the appointment of the Lay Delegates to the Diocesan Convention, to certify their election to the Secretary of the Convention in the form prescribed by Sections 7 and 8 of this Canon. From the certificates thus received, the Secretary shall prepare a list of Lay Delegates for use in the organization of the Convention.

SEC. 11. The presence of at least thirty Clergymen entitled to vote in the Convention, and of Delegates from at least thirty congregations, shall be necessary to the transaction of business—except that a smaller number may adjourn from day to day.

SEC. 12. If the President ex officio of the Convention is not present at its opening, the Secretary of the Convention shall call to order the members present, when the senior presbyter present entitled to a seat in the Convention shall take the chair, and shall preside until a President be elected, as provided by Article V. of the Constitution.

SEC. 13. The Secretary of the Convention, under the direction of the Bishop, or, in case of his absence or inability to act, or of a vacancy in the Episcopate, under the direction of the Standing Committee, shall call over the names of the Clergy entitled to seats.

SEC. 14. He shall call the names of the Lay Delegates whose election has been certified to him, in pursuance of Section 10 of this Canon. The President shall then appoint a committee of three persons, to whom shall be referred the credentials of the Lay Delegates, who shall report upon the correctness of the roll made by the Secretary.

SEC. 15. A quorum, which shall consist of thirty Clergymen and Delegates from thirty Congregations, being present, the President, ex officio, if present, shall declare the Convention duly organized. If he be absent, or unable to act, the temporary President shall direct that the members proceed to vote for a President, as provided in Article V. of the Constitution, which election shall be by ballot, unless dispensed with by the unanimous vote of the members present. The President, being elected, shall declare the Convention organized for business.

SEC. 16. The Convention shall then proceed to the election of a Secretary and Treasurer of the Convention, by ballot, unless dispensed with by the unanimous vote of the members present. The Secretary shall appoint two assistants, and announce their names to the Convention.

SEC. 17. The existing Rules of Order, so far as they are applicable to the preliminary proceedings for the organization of the Convention, shall be deemed in force for that purpose ; and the said Rules of Order, except such of them as prescribe the mode of altering the same, shall regulate the proceedings after the organization, until altered by the Convention.

CANON III.

Of the Call of the Convention.

Unless it be otherwise directed by the Convention, the mode of giving notice of the meeting of any Convention shall be by an advertisement of the time and place of such meeting, signed by the Secretary, and published in three of the public papers, or Church journals, printed in the Diocese of New York. Whenever, under the provisions of the Constitution, a Special Convention is called for any particular purpose, it shall be the duty of the Secretary, in the notice thereof, to specify such purpose.

CANON IV.

Of the Admission of a Church as a Parish into Union with the Church in this Diocese and Maintaining such Union.

SEC. 1. Every Church or Congregation desiring admission as a Parish into union with the Church in this Diocese shall present a written application therefor to the Convention, together with a copy of the Resolution of the Vestry or of the Congregation authorizing such application ; in which resolution the said Church, by its Vestry or Congregation, shall agree to abide by, and conform to and observe all the Canons of the Church, and all the rules, orders, and regulations of the Convention ; which copy shall be duly certified by the presiding officer of the Vestry, or of the meeting of the Congregation at which the resolution was adopted, and also by the Clerk of the Vestry or Secretary of the meeting ; and shall be authenticated by the seal of the corporation.

The said application shall also be accompanied by the Certificate of Incorporation of the Church, duly recorded, or a copy thereof, certified by the officer whose duty it may be to record or to file the same ; and also by a Certificate of the Bishop, or, in case of his absence, or of his inability or disability to act, or of a vacancy in the Episcopate, of the Standing Committee, that he or they approve of the Incorporation of said Church, and that such Church, in his or their judgment, is duly established.

Every Church or Congregation applying for admission shall produce satisfactory evidence that not less than twenty-five persons, members of such Church, have habitually, for at least one year preceding such application, attended divine service in such Church or Congregation.

The Certificate of Incorporation of every Church incorporated under any Act of the Legislature of the State of New York, save the General Act of April 5, 1813, and the Amendments thereto, shall declare upon its face that the Church or Congregation is a Protestant Episcopal Church, and that it is forever to continue such, in communion with the Protestant Episcopal Church in the State of New York ; and it shall be the duty of the Secretary of the Convention to prepare and furnish blanks for the Certificate of Incorporation of Parishes, which shall embody the above provision.

SEC. 2. (I.) No application for the admission of a Parish into union with the Church in this Diocese shall be considered or acted upon at any meeting of the Convention, unless the same has been transmitted to the Secretary of the Convention at least forty days before the meeting of the Convention.

(II.) It shall be the duty of the Secretary of the Convention, at least thirty days before the meeting of the Convention, to deliver to a Committee, to be annually appointed (to be called the Committee on the Incorporation and Admission of Churches), all applications for admission into union which shall have been received by him, to be by such Committee examined, considered, and reported upon to the Convention.

SEC. 3. Whenever any Parish in union with this Convention shall neglect for three years in succession to make a Parochial Report, no missionary report being made on its behalf, and shall not, during the same period, have employed a Clergyman as its Parish Minister, nor requested of the ecclesiastical authority to have the services of a Missionary, such Parish shall be regarded as having forfeited its connection with the Convention, and shall no longer have a right to send a Delegate or Delegates to the same.

The Bishop shall report such Parish to the Convention in his Annual Address.

Such Parish, however, may be re-admitted, upon application to the Convention, accompanied by a report of its condition, and on such terms as shall appear just; such re-admission to take effect from and after the rising of the Convention consenting to such admission.

CANON V.

Of the Secretary of the Convention.

SEC. 1. In addition to the constitutional provisions concerning the Secretary, it is hereby declared that this officer shall be chosen by ballot after viva voce nominations of the Candidates, and shall continue in office until a new election is made.

SEC. 2. He shall transmit annually to each of the Bishops of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States, and to the Secretary of the last House of Clerical and Lay Deputies in the General Convention, and to the Secretary of every Diocesan Convention, a copy of the Journal of the Convention; and shall request the last to send copies of their respective Journals in exchange.

SEC. 3. He shall also transmit to every General Convention, in addition to the documents mentioned in the Canons of the General Convention, a certificate, to be signed by himself, containing a list of the Clergymen in this Diocese, and the amount of funds paid or secured to be paid (distinguishing them) to the General Theological Seminary, together with the nomination of Trustees of that Seminary; and also a like certificate of the appointment of Clerical and Lay Deputies.

SEC. 4. Any expense incurred by a compliance with the third section of this Canon shall be paid out of the Diocesan Fund.

SEC. 5. Whenever there shall be a vacancy in the office of Secretary of the Convention, the duties thereof shall devolve upon one of the Assistant Secretaries in the order of their appointment, if there be one ; if not, upon the Secretary of the Standing Committee.

CANON VI.

Of the Treasurer of the Convention.

SEC. 1. At every stated Convention there shall be chosen by ballot a Treasurer of the Convention, who shall remain in office until the next stated Convention, and until a successor is appointed. It shall be his duty to receive and disburse all moneys collected under the authority of the Convention, and of which the collection and distribution shall not be otherwise regulated.

SEC. 2. His accounts shall be rendered annually to the Convention, and shall be examined by a Committee acting under its authority.

SEC. 3. In case of a vacancy in the office of Treasurer, it shall be supplied by an appointment to be made by the Standing Committee ; and the person so appointed shall continue to act until an appointment is made by the Convention.

CANON VII.

Of Parish Registers and Parochial Reports.

SEC. 1. Every Minister in charge of a Parish in this Diocese shall keep a Register of Baptisms, Confirmations, Communicants, Marriages, and Funerals within his Cure.

SEC. 2. The record shall specify the name and time of birth of each child baptized, with the names of the parents and sponsors ; the name of each adult baptized ; the name of each person confirmed ; the names of the parties married, with the names of the witness or witnesses required by the civil law ; the name of each person buried ; and also the time when each rite was performed. These Registers shall be kept by the Minister in a book to be provided for that purpose, belonging to the Vestry of each Church ; which book shall be the Parish Register, and shall be preserved by the Vestry as a part of the records of the Church.

The list of Communicants shall embrace all within his Cure as nearly as can be ascertained, and he shall also keep a list of the families and adult persons in his Cure, as far as practicable.

SEC. 3. Every Minister of this Church shall present, or cause to be delivered, on or before the first day of every annual Convention, to the Bishop of the Diocese, or, when there is no Bishop, to the President of the Convention, a statement of the number of Baptisms, Confirmations, Marriages, and Funerals ; and of the number of Communicants in his Parish or Church, and of all other matters that may throw light on the state of the same.

SEC. 4. In every case where a Parish is without a Minister, the Register contemplated by this Canon shall be kept by some person appointed by the Vestry for that purpose ; and the annual Parochial Reports shall be presented or forwarded to the Bishop by the Wardens of the Parish.

CANON VIII.

Of Preparing a Report on the State of the Church.

A Committee of the Convention of this Diocese shall be appointed at the stated meeting of the same next before every stated meeting of the General Convention, in accordance with the Canon* thereof, to assist the Bishop in preparing a report of the state of the Church in this Diocese, and a list of the Clergy, to be presented to the General Convention.

CANON IX.

Concerning Elections.

Elections by ballot, when required by these Canons, may be dispensed with by a unanimous vote of the Convention. And when an election is by ballot, a majority of the votes in each order shall be necessary to a valid election.

CANON X.

Of Deputies to the General Convention.

SEC. 1. The Convention shall, at each second regular annual meeting next succeeding a stated meeting of the General Convention, elect by ballot four Clergymen and four Laymen to act as Deputies from this Diocese to the General Convention. It shall also elect by ballot four Clergymen and four Laymen, as Provisional Deputies, to act in the case hereinafter mentioned ; which Deputies and Provisional Deputies shall hold their respective stations until successors are appointed, and shall be Deputies, or Provisional Deputies, for any General Convention which may be held during their continuance in office.

* Canon 18, Sec. 5, Title I.

SEC. 2. Should a vacancy occur by resignation, removal from the Diocese, death, or otherwise, among the Deputies or Provisional Deputies, between the stated times of election, the vacancy shall be supplied by any Convention, during or prior to which such vacancy shall occur.

SEC. 3. It shall be the duty of the Deputies elect to signify to the Bishop, at least two days before the meeting of the General Convention, their acceptance of the appointment, and their intention to perform its duties ; in default of which the Bishop shall designate, from the list of Provisional Deputies, so many as may be necessary to insure, as far as practicable, a full representation of the Diocese. And the Bishop shall in like manner designate from the same list of Provisional Deputies one or more, as the case may be, to supply any deficiency in the representation of this Diocese which may in any way occur. And the person or persons so designated by the Bishop, being furnished with his certificate thereof, shall have all the power and authority of Deputies duly elected by the Convention.

SEC. 4. In case of a vacancy in the Episcopate, or the inability of the Bishop to act, the power conferred upon the Bishop by this Canon shall be exercised by the Standing Committee.

CANON XI.

Of Deputies to the Federate Council.

At every stated Convention there shall be an election by ballot of eight Clergymen and eight Laymen to serve as Deputies at any meeting of the Federate Council that may be held before the next Annual Convention of the Diocese. And in case of a vacancy by death or otherwise among the Deputies so elected, such vacancy shall be filled by the Bishop.

CANON XII.

Of the Standing Committee.

SEC. 1. At every stated Convention a Standing Committee shall be elected by ballot, to consist of four Clergymen and four Laymen. Vacancies in said Committee, occurring by death or otherwise, shall be supplied by the concurrent vote of the Clerical members and Lay members of the Committee.

SEC. 2. In case of a vacancy in the Episcopate, or the inability or disability of the Bishop, the powers and duties to be performed by the Bishop in matters of discipline shall be performed by the Standing Committee, except in those cases where such powers and duties are or may be specially delegated to, or enjoined upon, the Clerical members of said Committee; in which cases such powers and duties shall be exercised by said Clerical members alone; provided, that no sentence shall be pronounced on a Clergyman but by a Bishop.

SEC. 3. The record of all proceedings upon a presentment of a Clergyman shall be preserved by the Standing Committee, and for that purpose shall, after a final decision, be delivered to their Secretary.

SEC. 4. Should a stated Convention, from any cause, not be held at the appointed time, or if such Convention should be held, but no election be made, pursuant to Section 1 of this Canon, then the last Standing Committee elected shall continue to perform the duties of the office until a new election takes place.

CANON XIII.

Of Vacant Parishes.

SEC. 1. Whenever a Parish becomes vacant by the resignation or decease of the incumbent, or otherwise, due notice of the same shall be given by the Clerk of the Vestry or Trustees to the Ordinary, who, with the concurrence of the authorities of the Parish, shall take such measures as he may deem expedient for the temporary maintenance of religious services in such Parish.

SEC. 2. It shall be the duty of the Vestry or Trustees of such vacant Parish to provide for the compensation of the Minister appointed under the preceding section.

CANON XIV.

Of the Establishment of New Places of Public Worship.

In places where the Church is already established, no new Parish shall be formed, or new Church or Chapel be established, or new Congregation be gathered, nor shall the site of any existing Church, Chapel, or Congregation be changed without the written consent of the Bishop of the Diocese and the formal approval of the Standing Committee. But such action of the Standing Committee shall not be taken until previous notice has been given, and due proof thereof furnished the Committee by the parties moving therefor, to the Rectors and Vestries of the three Churches or Congregations whose places of public worship shall be nearest to the site proposed for the new place of worship, nor until at least one month has been allowed such Rectors and Vestries to present any objections they may have.

In places where the Church is not established, the written consent of the Bishop of the Diocese, acting by and with the advice and consent of the Standing Committee, shall be sufficient for the formation of a new parish.

CANON XV.

Of the Episcopal Fund.

SEC. 1. The fund for the support of the Episcopate in this Diocese, now provided, together with that which may be hereafter contributed or acquired, and any accumulation accruing from the investment thereof, shall be intrusted to the corporation entitled "The Trustees of the Episcopal Fund for the Diocese of New York," incorporated by an Act of the Legislature of the State of New York, passed May 14, 1845. The Trustees composing said corporation shall be five in number, who shall be appointed by and shall hold their offices during the pleasure of the Convention, and all vacancies occurring in their number shall be filled by the Convention.

SEC. 2. It shall be the duty of every Rector or Minister having charge of a congregation in this Diocese to cause an annual collection or contribution to be made by said congregation in aid of the fund for the support of the Episcopate; and in the case of a vacant parish, this duty shall devolve on the Wardens and Vestrymen. The amount of each annual collection or contribution shall be paid to the Treasurer of the Trustees of the Episcopal Fund, and shall be reported by the Trustees to the Convention at the next stated meeting thereof, after such collection or contribution shall have been made, and shall be entered on its Journals.

SEC. 3. So long as the income of the fund is inadequate to the support of the Episcopate, and an annual assessment shall be made, under the authority of the Convention, for supplying the deficiency therein, the payment of such assessment by a Parish shall be considered as in lieu of the collection enjoined by Section 2 of this Canon.

SEC. 4. All moneys belonging to the said fund shall be loaned by the said Trustees upon security of real estate, or invested in stocks of the United States, or of any of the States, or of the City of New York, at their discretion, and also in such other securities as may be recommended unanimously by the Trustees and approved by a vote of the Convention. And all securities and investments shall be taken or made in their corporate name above mentioned, and they shall have power, from time to time, to change such investments. A statement exhibiting the condition of the said fund and securities, together with all receipts and disbursements, shall be reported to the Convention at every stated meeting thereof, signed by the Trustees, or a majority of them.

CANON XVI.

Of the Diocesan Fund.

SEC. 1. Every congregation in the Diocese shall pay to the Treasurer of the Convention, on or before the Day of its annual meeting, such a per cent. on the amount of the salary of its Clergyman as shall have been ordered by the preceding Convention, to provide for necessary expenses.

SEC. 2. It shall be the duty of the Treasurer of the Convention to retain annually out of this fund one dollar for each Clergyman in the Diocese. The moneys thus retained shall be paid by him to the Treasurer of the General Convention at each meeting of the same.

SEC. 3. A copy of this Canon shall be transmitted annually to every Church in the Diocese by the Secretary of the Convention.

CANON XVII.

Of Contributions for Church Objects.

SEC. 1. In every Parish of the Diocese provision shall be made whereby its members may make offerings, by collections and otherwise, as often as the needs of the Church shall require, for the support of its objects, particularly its missionary work at home and abroad, the education of young men for the sacred Ministry, and those other religious and charitable objects which have been commended to the care of the Church by the General Convention, or by the Convention of the Diocese; and it shall be the duty of the Clergyman in charge to give due notice to the congregation of the time and purpose of such offerings, and also to call their attention to the importance and claims of the respective objects to which the offerings are to be applied.

SEC. 2. The business of distributing all funds that may be raised under this Canon, for the education of young men for Holy Orders, is hereby committed to the incorporated society styled "The Protestant Episcopal Society for Promoting Religion and Learning in the State of New York," which shall make a full annual report to the Convention of the application of all moneys paid into its treasury under the provisions of this Canon, or by the Treasurer of the Convention from any source.

SEC. 3. So far as relates to the offerings or contributions of Parishes within the City of New York, it is hereby declared that the New York Protestant Episcopal City Mission Society and the New York Protestant Episcopal Church Missionary Society for Seamen in the City and Port of New York are to be reckoned among the Church charities for which provision is to be made, so that each congregation in the City of New York shall make annual contributions to one of these societies.

CANON XVIII.

Of the Diocesan Missionary Society.

SEC. 1. All members of the Church in this Diocese shall be considered as constituting the Diocesan Missionary Society.

SEC. 2. (I.) The Missionary Work of the Diocese shall be conducted by a Diocesan Board of Missions.

(II.) The Convention shall be the Diocesan Board of Missions, sitting as such as often as the business of the Board may demand.

SEC. 3. (I.) The Diocese shall be divided into five Archdeaconries, to be named, respectively :

1. The Archdeaconry of New York, comprising the County of New York.

2. The Archdeaconry of Richmond, comprising the County of Richmond.

3. The Archdeaconry of Westchester, comprising the Counties of Westchester, Putnam, and Rockland.

4. The Archdeaconry of Orange, comprising the Counties of Orange, Ulster, and Sullivan.

5. The Archdeaconry of Dutchess, comprising the County of Dutchess.

(II.) The members of each Archdeaconry shall be the Clergy canonically resident within its limits, with three Lay Delegates from each Parish, elected in such manner as the By-laws of the Archdeaconry may direct. It shall be the duty of each Archdeaconry [1] to search out the religious needs of its own district, and to conduct and provide for such Missionary Work as may be undertaken by it, within its own limits, and to apportion among the several Parishes the amount necessary to be raised for the same ; [2] to nominate to the Bishop, for his appointment, all Missionaries and other agents of the Archdeaconry, and to fix their salaries ; [3] to have full management of its funds ; [4] to provide that careful statistics as to the population and condition of communities and the results of Missionary Work be collected and preserved.

(III.) The Executive Officer or Archdeacon of each Archdeaconry shall be nominated by the Bishop, and confirmed by the Archdeaconry at a regular meeting, and shall continue in office until his successor be appointed. It shall be his duty [1] to superintend all Missionary Work conducted by the Archdeaconry ; [2] to have direction of all Itinerant Clergy and Associated Missions ; [3] to make full and regular reports of the same to the Archdeaconry ; and [4] in the absence of the Bishop to preside at all meetings.

(IV.) Each Archdeaconry shall adopt its own by-laws, elect annually its Secretary and Treasurer, and make before the Annual Meeting of the Board of Diocesan Missions a full report of its year's work to the Board of Managers hereinafter described.

SEC. 4. (I.) There shall be a Diocesan Board of Managers, which Board shall also be the Missionary Committee of the Diocese of New York, consisting of the Bishop, the five Archdeacons, Secretaries and Treasurers, and also five Clergymen and five Laymen, elected by ballot at the Annual Meeting of the Diocesan Board of Missions.

(II.) It shall be the duty of this Board of Managers [1] to decide, with the approval of the Bishop, what proportion of the whole sum voted by the Diocese shall be raised by, and what proportion shall be expended by each Archdeaconry; [2] to devise general plans for making Mission Work more effective, and developing a greater Missionary interest throughout the Diocese; [3] to send to the Diocesan Board of Missions, at its annual meeting, a report containing the following items:

- a. Statement of Missionary Work done since last report.
- b. The names of the Missionaries and Stations.
- c. An account of Annual Receipts and Expenditures, comprising all amounts received and disbursed by each Archdeaconry.
- d. A list of the Parishes contributing, and of the sums contributed by each Parish to Diocesan Missions.
- e. An estimate of the amount of funds needed for the Missionary Work of the Diocese for the ensuing year, and a schedule of assessments upon the several Parishes.

(III.) Seven members of the Board of Managers, at a regularly called meeting, two of whom shall be Archdeacons, shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. In the absence of the Bishop, one of the Archdeacons present shall be elected by the meeting to preside.

CANON XIX.

Of the Fund for Aged and Infirm Clergy.

SEC. 1. Five lay Trustees shall be appointed annually by the Convention, who, with the Bishop, shall constitute a Board to be called the Trustees of the Fund for Aged and Infirm Clergymen.

SEC. 2. Vacancies occurring in the number of the above-named five lay Trustees, by death, resignation, or otherwise, during the recess of the Convention, may be supplied by the remaining Trustees.

SEC. 3. It shall be the duty of the said Trustees to assume the management and care of the following funds :

1st. The fund now provided for the relief of Aged and Infirm Clergymen of the Diocese, together with that which may hereafter be contributed or acquired, and any accumulation accruing from the investment thereof.

2d. A fund to be hereafter contributed or acquired for the relief of Widows and Children of Deceased Clergymen of the Diocese, together with any accumulation accruing from the investment thereof.

3d. A fund to be hereafter contributed or acquired for the purpose of facilitating the effecting of Life Insurance by Clergymen of the Diocese, together with any accumulation accruing from the investment thereof.

SEC. 4. It shall be the further duty of the said Trustees to receive applications for relief or assistance from any persons entitled to receive aid from either of the funds above mentioned, and to apply such relief or assistance as follows :

1st. As to the fund for Aged and Infirm Clergymen, to apply such relief or assistance on the principles of, and subject to, the limitations indicated in the report of the Special Committee made to the Annual Convention of 1841,* and subject also to such other

* “(a) Legacies and donations to be invested as a permanent fund ; the proceeds to be applied annually, if needed, under the direction of the Bishop and three lay Trustees, to be elected by the Convention at each stated meeting. If the whole or any part of the annual revenue of said fund be not needed, in any year, it might be considered thenceforth as part of the capital.

“ . . . (b) Another . . . source of income will be found, it is presumed, in annual contributions to be made by all the congregations in the Diocese, on some day previously notified.

“ With regard to the limitations under which relief should be applied, your Committee are aware that much must be left to the discretion of the Trustees. . . . In regard to these limitations, the Committee would suggest :

“1. That relief should be confined to those whose circumstances are actually straitened, and who have been actively engaged in parochial or kindred labors during a large part of their ministerial lives.

“2. It should not be so administered as to supersede on the part of parishes the duty of making provision for the support of their pastor when too aged or rules and regulations as have since been adopted by this Convention, or as said Trustees, with the approbation of said Convention, shall from time to time adopt.

2d. As to the funds for the Widows and Children of Clergymen, and for facilitating the effecting of Life Insurance by Clergymen, to apply such relief or assistance on the principles of, and subject to, the limitations laid down by the regulations adopted by the Annual Convention of 1886, and subject also to such further rules and regulations as said Trustees, with the approbation of this Convention, shall from time to time adopt.

SEC. 5. A collection shall be made annually in every congregation in this Diocese, on the annual Thanksgiving Day, or on the Sunday next before or next following.

This collection and all other contributions to these objects shall be transmitted to the Treasurer of the said Board of Trustees.

All donations and legacies received by said Treasurer shall, in the absence of the special designation of one or other of the three funds, be apportioned equally among the said three funds. The annual collection, herein provided for, shall, in the absence of special designation of any portion thereof by the donors, be applied by said Trustees to the fund for the Widows and Children of Clergymen. The Treasurer shall keep a separate account of each of the said three funds, and all moneys not wanted for current use shall be invested and held in trust by the said Trustees.

SEC. 6. The said Trustees shall elect their own Chairman, Treasurer, and Secretary.

They shall meet at least twice in each year, and shall keep minutes of their proceedings, which shall be submitted to the Convention of the Diocese whenever called for.

infirm to continue his ministry ; and should therefore be confined, in the case of parish clergymen, to cases in which the parish has signified, through the Bishop, its inability or indisposition to make such provision to an adequate extent.

"3. It should not be extended to clergymen who have near relatives in affluent circumstances, unless there be satisfactory evidence that such relatives are unwilling to discharge the duty of providing for those of their own household.

"4. In deciding between conflicting claims, preference should be given ceteris paribus to those who have been longest employed within the Diocese in ministerial duty."

CANON XX.

Of the Trial of a Clergyman not being a Bishop.

Whenever any Minister of this Diocese, not being a Bishop thereof, shall become "liable to presentment and trial," under the provisions of any Canon of the General or Diocesan Convention, the mode of proceeding in this Diocese shall be as follows, viz. :

SEC. 1. The trial shall be on a presentment in writing, addressed to the Bishop of the Diocese, specifying the offences of which the accused is alleged to be guilty, with reasonable certainty as to time, place, and circumstances. Such presentment may be made by the major part in number of the members of the Vestry of any Church of which the accused is a Minister, or by any three Presbyters of this Diocese entitled to seats in the Convention, or as hereinafter mentioned. Whenever, from public rumor or otherwise, the Bishop shall have reason to believe that any Clergyman is under the imputation of having been guilty of any offence or misconduct for which he is liable to be tried, and that the interest of the Church requires an investigation, it shall be his duty to appoint five persons, of whom three at least shall be Presbyters, to examine the case, a majority of whom may make such examination ; and if there is in their opinion sufficient ground for presentment, shall present the Clergyman accordingly.

SEC. 2. A presentment being made in any one of the modes above prescribed, the Bishop, if the facts charged shall not appear to him to be such as constitute an offence, may dismiss it ; or if it allege facts, some of which do and some of which do not constitute an offence, he may allow it in part and dismiss the residue, or he may permit it to be amended. When it shall be allowed in whole or in part, the Bishop shall cause a copy of it to be served on the accused, and shall also nominate twelve Presbyters of this Diocese, entitled to seats in the Convention and not being parties to the presentment, and cause a list of their names to be served on the accused, who shall, within thirty days after such service, select five of them and notify their names in writing to the Bishop ; and if he shall not give such notification to the Bishop within the said thirty days, the Bishop shall select five, and the Presbyters so selected shall form a Board for the trial of the accused, and shall meet at such time and place as the Bishop shall direct, and shall have power to adjourn from time to time, and from place to place (but always within this Diocese), as they shall think necessary.

SEC. 3. A written notice of the time and place of their first meeting shall be served at least thirty days before such meeting on the accused, and also on one of the persons making the presentment.

SEC. 4. If, at the time appointed for the first meeting of the Board of Presbyters, the whole number of five shall not attend, then those who do attend may adjourn from time to time; and if, after one adjournment or more, it shall appear to them improbable that the whole number will attend within a reasonable time, then those who do attend, not being less than three, shall constitute the Board, and proceed to the trial, and a majority of them shall decide all questions.

SEC. 5. If a Clergyman presented shall confess the truth of the facts alleged in the presentment, it shall be the duty of the Bishop to proceed to pass sentence; and if he shall not confess them before the appointment of a Board for his trial, as before mentioned, he shall be considered as denying them.

SEC. 6. If a Clergyman presented, after having had due notice, shall not appear before the Board of Presbyters appointed for his trial, the Board may nevertheless proceed as if he were present, unless for good cause they shall see fit to adjourn to another day.

SEC. 7. When the Board proceed to the trial, they shall hear such evidence as shall be produced, which evidence shall be reduced to writing, and signed by the witnesses respectively; and some officer, authorized by law to administer oaths, may, at the desire of either party, be requested to administer an oath or affirmation to the witnesses that they will testify the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, concerning the facts charged in the presentment. If, on or during the trial, the accused shall confess the truth of the charges, as stated in the presentment, the Board may dispense with hearing further evidence, and may proceed at once to state their opinion to the Bishop as to the sentence that ought to be pronounced.

SEC. 8. Upon the application of either party to the Bishop, and it being made satisfactorily to appear to him that any material witnesses cannot be procured upon the trial, the Bishop may appoint a Commissary to take the testimony of any such witness. Such Commissary may be either a Clergyman or a Layman, and the party so applying shall give to the other at least six days' notice of the time and place of taking the testimony. And if the person on whom the notice shall be served shall reside more than forty miles from the place of examination, an additional day's notice shall be given for every additional twenty miles of the said distance. And both parties may attend and examine the witness, and the questions and answers shall be reduced to writing and signed by the witness, and shall be certified by the Commissary, and enclosed under his seal, and transmitted to the Board, and shall be received by them as evidence. A witness examined before such Commissary may be sworn or affirmed in manner aforesaid.

SEC. 9. The Board having deliberately considered the evidence, shall declare, in a writing signed by them, or a majority of them, their decision on the charges contained in the presentment, distinctly stating whether the accused is guilty or not guilty of such charges, respectively, and also stating the sentence which in their opinion should be pronounced; and a copy of such decision shall be, without delay, communicated to the accused, and the original decision, together with the evidence, shall be delivered to the Bishop, who shall pronounce such canonical sentence as shall appear to him to be proper, provided the same shall not exceed in severity the sentence recommended by the Board; and such sentence shall be final. Before pronouncing any sentence the Bishop shall summon the accused, and any three or more of the Clergy, to meet him at such time as may in his opinion be most convenient, in some church to be designated by him, which shall for that purpose be open at the time to all persons who may choose to attend, and the sentence shall then and there be publicly pronounced by the Bishop. But the Bishop, if he shall be satisfied that justice requires it, may grant a new trial to the accused, in which case a new Board of Presbyters shall be appointed, the proceedings before whom shall be conducted as before mentioned.

SEC. 10. All notices and papers contemplated in this Canon may be served by a summoner or summoners, to be appointed for the purpose by the Bishop, and whose certificate of such service shall be evidence thereof. In case of service by any other person, the facts shall be proved by the affidavit of such person. A written notice or paper delivered to a party, or left at his last place of residence, shall be deemed a sufficient service of such notice or paper.

SEC. 11. The defendant may have the privilege of appearing by counsel ; in case of the exercise of which privilege, and not otherwise, those who present shall have also the like privilege.

CANON XXI.

Concerning Alterations in the Canons and Additions thereto.

No proposed alteration of, or addition to, the Canons shall hereafter be considered by the Convention, unless at least one day's previous notice be given thereof in open Convention ; nor, unless by unanimous consent, until such alteration or addition shall have been referred to and reported upon by a Committee of at least two Presbyters and two Laymen. Nor shall such alteration or addition be adopted, during the same Convention, if two-thirds of the votes of both orders, taken separately, shall not concur therein ; but in such case the same (unless negatived by a majority of the members present) shall lie over for consideration until the next annual meeting of the Convention.

CANON XXII.

Repealing Former Canons.

All former Canons of this Convention are hereby repealed.

RULES OF ORDER.

I. Every Convention shall be preceded by the Celebration of the Holy Communion and the Annual Address of the Bishop, or a Sermon, as the Bishop shall appoint ; after which, the Bishop taking the Chair, the order of procedure shall be as follows :

1. The Secretary, under the direction of the Bishop, or, in case of his absence or inability to act, or of a vacancy in the Episcopate, under the direction of the Standing Committee, shall call over the names of the Clergy entitled to seats.

2. He shall call the names of the Lay Delegates whose election has been certified to him in pursuance of Canon II., Section 9. The President shall then appoint a Committee of three persons, to whom shall be referred the credentials of the Lay Delegates, who shall report upon the correctness of the roll made by the Secretary.

3. A constitutional quorum (thirty Clergymen and thirty Delegations) being present, the President shall declare the Convention organized for business, which shall proceed in the following order :

4. Reading of the Rules of Order.

5. The election of a Secretary and Treasurer, the former of whom shall have power to appoint two Assistant Secretaries.

6. The appointment of five Standing Committees by the President :

(1) On the Incorporation and Admission of Churches—to consist of one Clergyman and two Laymen, which Committee may report at any time during the session of the Convention, in order.

(2) On the Diocesan Fund, two Clergymen and two Laymen, with the Treasurer.

(3) On the Treasurer's Report, three Laymen.

(4) On the General Theological Seminary, two Clergymen and three Laymen.

(5) On Canons, at least two Clergymen and two Laymen.

7. The appointment of Inspectors of Elections : one Clergyman and one Layman for the Clerical Votes, and one Clergyman and one Layman for the Lay Votes—for the Standing Committee, the Deputies and the Provisional Deputies to the General Convention, and the Missionary Committee.

8. The Receiving and Referring, when necessary, of Reports, other than those of Special Committees, which may have been handed in to the Secretary.

9. Miscellaneous business.

II. On the second day, the order of business, after Morning Prayer, shall be :

1. Reading and approving of the Minutes.
2. Receiving certificates of Lay Delegates not present before.
3. Calling over the names of members not present on the first day.
4. Admission of Parishes into union with the Convention.
5. Reception of the Clergy and Lay Delegates of the same.
6. Annual Address of the Bishop, unless he should prefer another time for its delivery. If so, it shall be at any time in order.
7. The Election of the Standing Committee, the Deputies and the Provisional Deputies to the General Convention, and the Missionary Committee.
8. The appointment of the Trustees of the Fund for Aged and Infirm Clergymen, and supplying vacancies, if any, in the Trustees of the Episcopal Fund.
9. Report of the Secretary, when any business has been committed to that officer.
10. Report of the New York Protestant Episcopal Mission Society.
11. Report of the Missionary Committee of the Diocese.
12. Report of Society for Promoting Religion and Learning.
13. Report of Trustees of the Episcopal Fund.
14. Report of the Trustees of the Fund for Aged and Infirm Clergymen.
15. Report of the Standing Committee on the Treasurer's Report.
16. Report of the Standing Committee on General Theological Seminary.
17. Report of the Standing Committee on the Diocesan Fund.
18. Report of the Committee on Canons.
19. Reports of Special Committees.
20. Miscellaneous business.

III. On the third and any subsequent day, the order of business, after Morning Prayer, shall be :

1. Reading and approval of the Minutes.
2. Receiving the certificates of Lay Delegates not present before.
3. Calling the names of members not present before.
4. Reports not presented the preceding day, in order.
5. Miscellaneous business.

IV. If the prescribed order of business on any day should not have been gone through with, the first business the succeeding day shall be the matters which had not been reached on the preceding day, and in the order for that day prescribed ; this rule shall not apply to miscellaneous business.

V. If the President ex officio is not present at the opening of the Convention, the Secretary shall call the Convention to order, when the senior Presbyter present, being entitled to a seat, shall take the chair ; and in such case, immediately after the organization of the Convention, a President shall be elected by ballot, from among the Clergy.

VI. Before the rising of the Convention, the Minutes of the last day's proceedings shall be read and approved.

VII. The Bishops of the Protestant Episcopal Church, Clergymen belonging in this Diocese but not entitled to seats in this Convention, Clergymen of other Dioceses, Professors and Students of Theology in the Protestant Episcopal Church, and all persons holding any office or trust under the Convention, if not members, shall be admitted to the sittings of the Convention.

VIII. The hours of each day's session shall be from 10 A.M. to 1 P.M., and from 2 to 5 P.M., and, when ordered by the Convention, from 7½ to 10 P.M.

IX. The mode of conducting the stated elections by ballot shall be as follows :

The Secretary shall call the names of the Clergy and of the Parishes entitled to vote, who, as called, are to present their several ballots for each office to be filled to the appropriate inspectors, whose duty it shall be to take charge of the same, keeping a poll list of the votes, and, as soon as practicable, to canvass the same, and report the result thereof to the Convention. If, on any such report, it should appear that no valid election has been made in respect to all or any of the offices to be filled, the poll shall again be opened, for the purpose of filling those which may remain vacant ; and if, on such second attempt, the purpose shall not be accomplished, the balloting may be resumed at the discretion of the Convention.

X. No motion shall be considered as before the Convention unless seconded, and, when required, reduced to writing.

XI. When a question is before the Convention, no motion, except as hereinafter provided, shall be received, but to lay it on the table—to postpone it indefinitely—to postpone it to a certain time—to commit—or to amend it ; which motions shall have precedence in the order named. But a motion to strike out the word “ Resolved ” shall have precedence of a motion to amend, and, if carried, shall be equivalent to a rejection of the resolution.

XII. All amendments shall be considered in the order in which they are received. When a proposed amendment is under consideration, a motion to amend the same may be made ; no after-amendment to such second amendment shall be in order. But when an amendment to an amendment is under consideration, a substitute for the whole matter may be received. No proposition on a subject different from that under consideration shall be received under color of a substitute.

XIII. A motion to lay on the table shall be decided without debate.

XIV. A motion to adjourn shall always be in order, when no member is speaking, and shall be decided without debate.

XV. The mover may withdraw a motion or resolution at any time before decision or amendment, in which case it shall not be entered upon the Minutes.

XVI. If a question under debate contains several distinct propositions, the same shall be divided at the request of any member, and a vote taken separately.

XVII. No member may speak more than twice on the same question without leave of the Convention, nor more than once in any case until every member choosing to speak shall have spoken.

XVIII. Every member present shall vote whenever a question is put, unless excused by the Convention on account of his being personally interested in the result, or for other cause.

XIX. The vote shall be taken by ayes and noes, and by orders, whenever called for by five members.

XX. In taking the vote by orders, it shall be the right of any member of a delegation who may dissent from the vote of the majority of the delegation to have the fact of his dissent recorded on the Minutes.

XXI. A question, being decided, shall not be reconsidered during the same session without the consent of two-thirds of the members present, nor without the motion for that purpose being made by one of the majority on the first decision. No question shall be reconsidered more than once.

XXII. All Special Committees shall be appointed by the President, unless otherwise ordered.

XXIII. The reports of all Committees shall be in writing, and shall be received, of course, without motion for acceptance. They shall be entered on the Minutes, unless otherwise ordered. If recommending or requiring any action or expression of opinion by the Convention, they shall be accompanied by a resolution, or resolutions, for its consideration.

XXIV. When a member is called to order by the President, or by another member, he shall immediately sit down, unless permitted to explain. All questions of order shall be determined in the first instance by the President; but any member may appeal from any decision of the Chair; and on such appeal, no member shall speak more than once without leave of the Convention.

XXV. The prescribed order of business shall not be departed from, nor shall any rule of order be suspended, unless by a vote of two-thirds of the members present; nor shall any be changed or rescinded without one day's previous notice of a motion to that effect.

XXVI. The majority of a quorum shall always be required to elect any officer.
